Monson adds two, rounds out basketball coaching staff

Oregon head basketball Coach Don Monson has completed his coaching staff with the addition of Leon Rice and Mike Guajardo to fill the part-time and graduate assistant positions, respectively.

Rice has been a graduate assistant the past three years, and Guajardo comes to Oregon for the first year.

Guajardo played for Monson at Pasco (Wash.) High School in 1968 and 1969 and has been the head coach at Pasco for the past 10 years. A high school teacher for 18 years, with 17 of those at Pasco, Guajardo is on a sabbatical to complete post-graduate work in the Department of Educational Policy and Management in the School of Administration.

He graduated from Pacific Lutheran University in 1973 and received his Master's from Washington State University in 1977.

Rice, a native of Richland, Wash., recently completed his Master's degree in program management and program development at Oregon. The 1986 WSU graduate was formerly a teacher and assistant basketball coach under Guajardo at Pasco prior to his arrival in Eugene.

Guajardo and Rice join full-time assistants Ken Smith and Mike Petersen.
