

SPORTS

Duck netters get Pac-10 win

Dawn Charroin contributed 20 kills and seven blocks, and Stephanie Warren added 12 kills, 12 digs and five blocks as Oregon's volleyball team downed Arizona at Tucson Thursday night, 15-2, 15-13, 13-15, 15-13.

The win was the first for Oregon in the Pacific-10 Conference, and the Wildcats remained winless in conference play.

Though the Ducks, 11-4 overall and 1-2 in the Pacific-10 Conference, were limited to a .128 hitting mark, they shut down the Arizona offense, which hit a dismal .031. Oregon outblocked the Wildcats 16 to 10.

"Dawn was our most devastating hitter, and though she had some errors, she put the ball down regularly and had some nice blocks for us," Oregon Coach Gerry Gregory said.

"Molly McGrath did a nice job of running our offense but also had one of her best nights blocking. Ali Watkins and Angee Henderson helped spark our team off the bench, and Stephanie Warren had an excellent night hitting the ball."

Warren led the Ducks with a .348 hitting mark and tied Gretchen Hughes for the team lead in digs with 10 each. McGrath and Charroin shared the block lead with seven apiece.

For the Ducks, it was their first conference road victory since a three-game sweep at Washington last October.

"We played nearly perfect in game one and basically blocked them off the court," Gregory said. "Games two through four were marked by inconsistency. In game three, they had a large lead, 13-8, and we came back within one before running out of steam."

"Game four was much the same with the roles reversed. They made a charge, but we were able to hang on for the win. We'll need a smoother match against Arizona State Friday night in Tempe."

Marcie Price, playing in her first match of the season after missing four weeks due to a broken finger, chipped in with four kills and five blocks.

Melissa Ferris and Mary Palmer led Arizona, 3-9 overall and 0-3 in the Pac-10, with 13 and 11 kills, respectively.

Tennis deadline

The deadline for registering for the University of Oregon adult tennis invitational is Friday, Oct. 4 at 5 p.m.

The annual event, sponsored by the Oregon men's tennis team, takes place at the University courts, Oct. 11-13.

Entry blanks are available at the men's tennis office at the Len Casanova Athletic Center. Additional information may be obtained by calling Oregon men's tennis coach Buzz Summers at 346-5476.

Class: Psychology 101
Term: Fall 1991

Instructor: Lane Transit District

1) Who developed "the hierarchy of need"? List them.

2) Give an example of cognitive dissonance.

3) Adler, Fromm, Menniger, and Allport are described as "Post-Freudian theorists". What does that mean?

Summarize major achievements of each.

4) You can ride the bus...anywhere. Anytime.
All term long. Just show your student I.D.
Would Skinner call this "Positive Reinforcement"?

BONUS

5) According to Freud, what does "the bus"

represent in a dream?

How do the id, the ego and the superego affect bus ridership?

Please be specific.

☆ Recycle ☆
this ☆ paper. ☆