LETTERS

We agree

I would really like to see people write letters to the Emerald.

Think about it

Not only was Russell McGlothlin (Lambda Chi Alpha) offended by the cartoon Oscar the Freshman (ODE, Sept. 25) that was totally degrading to the greek system, but I as an "independent" was insulted by this idiotic statement of stereotyping by someone who obviously doesn't have the slightest clue about the greek system.

I happen to know a lot of people who are involved with the greek system and all of them are very successful students working toward high-level career goals as most of us do when we enter into higher education.

They are also very active in the community, donating many hours of their time to the welfare of this University.

Neal Skorpen's goal is to write a cartoon that is funny! (Funny is a key goal here.) Your last cartoon, Skorpen, was not the least bit amusing.

And the next time you drink a few to many beers, or watch a pretty girl cross the street, think a little bit, Skorpen. Just think.

THE FAR SIDE

By GARY LARSON

In what was destined to be a short-lived spectacle, a chicken, suspended by a balloon, floated through the Samurai bar's doorway.
