E-MAIL

point Melody. Of course this will take solidarity and intensive lobbying with George.

"What say ye, brothers?"

Larry Schanz — Aug. 8.

"WOW!!!!"

"I got the same idea when I woke up this morning.

"Count on Me!!!!!"

Ralf Walters — Aug. 8

"Even though their meetings have been canceled, we still need to decide if we are going to stage a coup or endrun on the Sinocore appt. We need to hear from Bruce, ASAP, if you think we can pull it off."

Bruce Berg — Aug. 10.

"I'll vote with you, but ONLY if one of you can talk to George and get him to change his mind, without that we cause disruption and controversy and gain nothing but alienation.

"If one of you can contact me sometime soon about whether or not you got to George, I'll be proud to vote with you.

"Great idea, we're just 1 short."

Ralf Walters — Aug. 12.

"Just met with George and he said he would rescind his support of Sinocore and would switch to Melody Kelsay!

"It's my feeling that we should nominate her at the CC meeting and get it over with. I don't want our work session packed with PC people hanging to our every word and making us future targets. If we do it at the CC meeting, we'll keep that door closed.

"It ain't over til the fat lady sings."

This next transmission is a personal favorite of mine. In it, Walters compares homosexuality to pedophilia, incest and rape. Also interesting to many college-aged people would be Walters' morally superior knowledge that living together is on the same level with raping your own child.

Ralf Walters — Aug. 17.

"Everyone knows there are homosexuals, but it is not necessary for everyone to know who is homosexual. Homosexuals seem not content unless they make people aware of their sexual behavior. The church's position is that all sexual relationships outside of (heterosexual) marriages are immoral including adultery, pedophilia, incest, rape, homosexuality, and plain old 'shacking up.' The church has not targeted homosexuality, but the militant gay groups have targeted the church.

"For two hundred years the USA has accepted Christian morality as the moral foundation for our society even if many or even most of the population were not true believers.

"I believe that GOD and the bible will be rejected by society and that the church will be persecuted here in the USA; to the delight of many."

Plan takes root

There are no more transmissions until the night of the vote when Berg, Walters and

'P.S. I wish Gayle would quit spreading gossip in Bishoff's column like some stereotypical female.'

— Ralf Walters

Schanz, aided by George Wocjik, carry out the plan to dump Sinocore. Actually coup is the right word. As we witnessed recently in Russia, coups are often carried out by people who are endowed with the knowledge of what is best for the ignorant masses. Because of this ignorance, the coup plotters must carry out their plans in secret so that that the ignorant masses won't get in the way of the moral minority.

Enter Gayle Decker. Decker is author of some of the funnier statements in the remainder of the E-mail. She is also the victim of one of the most typically ignorant of Walters' statements. But first, she talks about using the same kind of backdoor tactics the others used, although she says she finds it distasteful.

Gayle Decker — Aug. 21.

"I can't think of a more obvious way to underline my philosophical differences from those of Ralf and Larry than that, short of having an abortion. There are some limits to what I will do to make a point."

Weed killer

Don Bishoff now arrives on the scene. Bishoff first broke the E-mail story and sent Walters and Schanz scurrying for cover. Berg had since gone on vacation.

Gayle Decker — Aug. 21.

"Bishoff is doing a column on the Monday night screw-up (over?) and called me for an interview. I expect that we will be fried, but I think we deserve it. I agree with you about the need to lower the HRC visibility. Maybe Bill's idea of getting a politically neutral youth project started with the HRC will help, unless of course the permanently paranoid on the council see some kind of gay and lesbian plot afoot.

"When will people stop fearing everything they don't understand."

Ralf Walters — Aug. 23.

"Esteemed fellows of the burned by Bischoff bake-off,

"Now that the line in the sand has been drawn, why don't we find a pro-life candidate that will represent the aborted who have no human rights at the present time!

"Digging in, Ralf.

"P.S. I wish Gayle would quit spreading gossip in Bischoff's column like some stereotypical female."

Good advice

Bill Morrisette — Aug. 25

"And Larry, if you really feel that conservative Christians are victims of persecution, harassment or even misunderstanding, you should bring it before the HRC and ask their opinion and especially for their understanding — you might be pleasantly surprised by the response you get."

This entire affair has led me to develop my own advice for us all: If you feel that you are being persecuted, don't use your religious or political beliefs as a scapegoat. It could be that people think you're just a jerk.
