Rugby pulls last-minute win

Don't ever count the Oregon club rugby team out of a game.

The Ducks trailed by as much as 16-0 at Humboldt State on Saturday but came back to win on the last play of the game, 17-16.

Seth Niederberger scored the winning goal, improving Oregon's record to 3-0.

A successful penalty kick by Brian Zeller put the Ducks into the scoring column in the first half, and a score by Pete Schwartz brought the Ducks to within 16-7 at the half.

Rich Miller's score during injury-time cut the Humboldt State lead to 16-11 and was later followed by Niederberger's last-minute score.

The Ducks' next game is at noon Saturday at South Bank Field against the Bend Roughriders.

In other club rugby news, six Oregon players made the All-Pacific Northwest Collegiate Rugby representative side in Portland on Oct. 19.

Steve Knauss, Jason Waterman, Richard Dunn, Niederberger, Schwartz and Miller all received an 'A' rating, which enables them to participate on the traveling team. The team accepts players from universities in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

In other Oregon Club Sports news, the Oregon club women's soccer team beat Seattle-Pacific 3-1 Saturday at South Bank Field.

Jody Kaulukukui scored twice, and Jennifer Huckins scored once to lead the Ducks.

Oregon improved its record to 3-2-2 with the win.
