

Eugene offers under-21 Halloween fun

MacHalloween Party: The University Micro-computer Support Center and Apple Computer Inc. are holding Halloween activities Thursday, Oct. 31, in the EMU Fir Room from 1-5 p.m.

Along with games and refreshments, Apple's new products will be displayed, and computer demonstrations will be given at 1:30 and 3:30. Eligible students, faculty and staff will receive a considerable savings on the center's most popular computers and printers.

Those who arrive in costume will be eligible to win an Apple CD-ROM Drive, and costumes will be judged at the 3:30 computer demonstration. The prize will be awarded at 4:30 p.m.

A Halloween Bash: Club 136, 136 E. 11th Ave., is planning a four-day Halloween party for those 17 and older.

The Club will kick off the bash Wednesday night, Oct. 30, with three local bands. On Thursday, Halloween night, a

Hitting Birth, a Portland band, will take to the W.O.W. Hall stage for the center's annual Halloween party.

Haunt Party will take place, with cash prizes given away for best costumes.

The cover charge for Halloween Night is only $3, and the party will last from 9 p.m. to 3 a.m. Friday and Saturday nights will follow-up the Haunt Party, with tickets selling for $4 with costume and $6 without.
