WATCH FOR THE GREAT PUMPKIN
HALLOWEEN NIGHT

HAUNTED HAPPENINGS

Local bars cater to Halloween partiers

It's an unfortunate fact, but for most of us, Halloween just ain't what it used to be.

We can't get away with trick-or-treating and we don't fit into those plastic drug-store costumes, so that means expending energy into making a costume, and by this time we're just too tired to bother.

Fortunately for the old and weary among us, several area establishments have taken our Halloween needs upon themselves and are prepared to entertain, amuse and spook us old kids as best they can.

Guido's, 801 E. 13th Ave., offers the Blubinos in concert, beginning at 10 p.m. Costume judging will start at midnight with $350 in prizes for the best costumes. The cover charge is $4.

Club Arena, 959 Pearl St., presents an Arena Production of Night of the Killer Clowns. Plans include an elaborate decor scheme of black walls surrounding the dance floor and images of psychotic, perhaps psychedelic "killer clowns" around the room. Patrons will also enter the club through a giant-sized clown face. Costume judging begins at midnight with cash prizes for the top three guises. The cover charge is $3.

The Eugene Hilton, 66 E. Sixth Ave., and KUGN will present the 10th annual Halloween party beginning at 9 p.m. This event boasts its favorite band, The Valley Boys, which play Top 40 music. Howl, scream and lipsync contests will be held, as will costume judging for the following categories: best all around disguise, most original, best couple/group, and best Dolly Parton and Clint Black look-alikes. Admission is $10 at the door.

Local hangout New Max's, 550 E. 13th Ave., presents a costume party with entertainment provided by country/rock band Guardians of American Morality at 10 p.m. The cover charge is $3.

R&B haven Good Times, 375 E. Seventh Ave., will hold a costume party and feature the sounds of The NightCrawlers at 10 p.m. The cover charge is $3.

There are places to go and people to see, so get out and have fun. The only thing you have to make sure you do is keep it safe!

1: Halloween — After Psycho, this is horror's most imitated film. Perhaps you've seen one of the Friday the 13th movies. But this creates real suspense and delivers chills the entire time with a minimum amount of gore and gratuitous female flesh. Jamie Lee Curtis was unfairly given the label of "Scream Queen" for her tough and believable performance as a young woman who battles the masked serial killer on All Hallow's Eve. Avoiding the sequels is advised.
