arts graduate. "I wasn't real aware of the depth of white supremacy — not on a real-life level. It's not just a handful of weird guys. (The play) has definitely impacted me."

"Not everyone who walks on two legs is human. It's not that we don't respect non-Aryans. It's just that they don't have the status we do. We didn't choose it, God has said it." — Pastor.

Other cast members are Michael Bilyeu, Jeff Burlew, Russell Dyball, Richard Egan, Tryg Falkenberg, Michael Russell, Heidi Schreck and Jill Snyder.

Roger Johnson, a freshman at Springfield High School, and Beth Peterson, University graduate student, complete the cast.

A forum discussion will follow each night's performance to discuss the relevance of the play to current issues such as

'This play points out the danger and futility of hate. It alerts the community to the power of hate and the presence of prejudice in our community.'

— Jack Watson
director, God's Country

the rise in hate crimes. The public is invited.

God's Country will run Nov. 1-2, 7-9, and 15-16. All performances begin at 8 p.m. and tickets are $4.50 for students and senior citizens and $6.50 for general admission. All seats are reserved.

The box office is open from 12:30 to 4 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 6:30 to 8:15 p.m. on performance nights. Call 346-4191 for more information or to reserve tickets.
