STUDIES ABROAD

We'd like to show you a path that often holds the greatest reward.

Rewarding careers for people who care

Down the road a few years from now you're going to be glad you chose a career path today that's right in the heart of Boston. It's Northeastern University's Boston-Bouve College of Human Development Professions - the smart choice that leads to a greater reward for people who really care.

The graduate programs offered by Boston-Bouve College provide you with a wide range of career opportunities in health, sport, and leisure studies, rehabilitation, counseling, communication disorders, and education.

Our faculty have received national and international recognition for their research, teaching and service to others and to their profession. Boston-Bouve College has well-established clinical affiliations with some of Boston's leading medical, educational and research facilities.

Study may lead to a master's degree, certificate of advanced graduate study (CAGS), or doctoral degree. Most programs are offered on a part-time as well as full-time basis, combining classroom theory with practical hands-on experience. Courses meet in the late afternoon and early evening, so students can continue to work.

Graduate programs are offered in the following areas:

- Audiology
- Clinical Exercise Physiology
