

MYSTERY COUPONS

NOV. 25 - 30
AT THE UO BOOKSTORE

15% - 50%
OFF STOREWIDE

THIS WEEK ONLY!!

When you make ANY purchase at the UO Bookstore, you'll get to draw for a mystery coupon and receive 15% to 50% off your purchase!

ENTER TO WIN!!

The UO Bookstore says "Happy Thanksgiving" to you and gives you a chance to win a delicious meal for you and someone special!

WIN ONE OF TWO
$50.00 GIFT CERTIFICATES
TO OREGON ELECTRIC STATION

Entry Form Inside of Mystery Coupon: Fill It Out And Place In Drop Box Provided In The Lobby of the Bookstore

ALMOST EVERYTHING IN THE STORE IS INCLUDED IN THIS SALE WITH THESE EXCEPTIONS: Coursebooks, film processing, tobacco products, class rings, academic regalia, computers, software, merchandise already sale marked, and some electronic equipment already priced extremely competitively. No further discounts, cash register sales only. Limited to stock on hand. Main store at 13th and Kincaid only.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
BOOKSTORE

The UO BOOKSTORE will be CLOSED THURSDAY, NOV. 28 and will be
OPEN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOV. 29 AND 30

UO BOOKSTORE

13TH AND KINCAID, M - F, 7:30 - 6:00, SAT. 10:00 - 6:00, PH 346-4331

Rugby team Beavers' prey

By Steve Mirms
Emerald Contributor

Like their football counterparts, the Oregon Rugby team had defeated Oregon State 15 of the last 17 times they met. Also like the football team, the Ducks lost to the Beavers last Saturday.

The Beavers used a second-half explosion to blow by the Ducks 31-3. After leading only 4-0 at halftime, the Beavers came out hungry in the second half and made mincemeat out of the Ducks.

"We let down," Oregon coach Bob Snyder said. "We couldn't attack with the ball."

Trailing only 4-0, the Ducks were victims of a tough offside call at the start of the second half, which led to a penalty kick by Jeff Merwin. Dave Frazier then picked up a loose ball and ran it into the zone for his second try of the game, giving the Beavers a 13-0 lead.

With 15 minutes left and the Ducks still in the game, Merwin broke the Ducks' heart with a 15-yard try that took the spirit out of Oregon's offense. The Beavers added two more tries later, but that only made an otherwise close game appear to be a blowout.

The game was not as lopsided as the score indicated, because the Ducks were in the game until the last 15 minutes of the second half. The Duck forwards played well but it was not enough to beat the Beavers on this day.

"I thought we'd do better," Snyder said. "When we had chances, we just didn't convert."

The Ducks finished their fall season losing their first two league games. They were beaten at Washington 16-6 two weeks ago before falling to the Beavers on Saturday. Oregon now takes the winter off before returning to action in February.

TEAM

Continued from Page 7

five more wins, I'm sure," Heiny said.

Senior Staci Wallenborn was the other prominent starter last season, finishing second on the team in points with 14.5 a game and rebounds with 5.9 a contest.

Absent from the lineup will be graduated seniors Jennifer Bourn and forward Trina McCartney. Bourn, the record-setting three-point shooter, and McCartney, one of the leading rebounders in University history, will both serve as graduate assistants to Heiny this year.

Other returners include senior center Marne Smith, junior guard Peggy Swadener, junior forward Jean Maree Lillard, and sophomore guards Iesha Smith and Mary Jo Davis.

Some of the newcomers to the team this year are not really new to college basketball at all.

Sophomores Kelly Blair and Cindy Murphy complement an already loaded class with their experience. Blair, who played her freshman year at Oregon, redshirted last season to concentrate on track and field, and Murphy transferred to Oregon last season after a year at Gonzaga.