❖ Seasons Greetings ❖

This year try a 'green' Christmas

Buy Earth-wise gifts for friends

It's nearly December. Finals and the holidays lurk on the next page of your monthly wall calendar like the Grinch in his lair. Thoughts of grades, finances and what to give your friends trail you unnervingly.

Don't panic.

Let ideas of trendy, globally conscious and utilitarian gifts fill your mind. They may not help your grades or earn you extra money, but they might lead you to holiday shopping answers.

Try this: French press pots, otherwise known as coffee-making cups, that don't need messy filters. Fast gaining popularity, the cups are priced from $10 to $25 at Allan Brothers Coffee Company, 2465 Hilyard St. If your friends prefer espresso, Allan Brothers also offers stove-top espresso makers from $15 to $40.

HK Limited in the Valley River Center boasts wine glasses and wildlife T-shirts, both favorites this year. Prices range from $2.50 to $10 per glass and from $18 to $25 per T-shirt. The sale of each style of T-shirt even benefits a different cause.

Karen Swank, owner of the Book Mark, 856 Olive St., pointed out Generation X: Tales for an Accelerated Culture for $12.95 and Digesting the Child Within, and Other Cartoons to Live By for $8. After all, books are always popular.

Women's issues books are also strong sellers. "In the last six months or so, there has been a whole new wave of well-researched women's books," said Gavin McComas, proprietor of Sundance Mercantile, 2470 Alder St.

Specific ideas include: Reinventing Eve, by Kim Chernon, $7.95; all Alice Walker books; and collections of women's wit, wisdom and quotations, such as

And Then She Said, compiled by J.D. Zahniser.

Or how about singing reindeer socks for $15 from Footwise Birkenstocks, 296 E. Fifth Ave. By just pressing the little reindeer, the socks come to
