COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Public Christmas tree-cutting allowed with permit

People who can't find the right Christmas tree from the local parking lot vendor can hunt down and chop their own trees this year at one of two government sites.

The Bureau of Land Management will allow public tree-cutting on two of its sites during the first two weeks of December.

Permits for cutting, which can only be obtained at the tree-cutting sites from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day, cost $3 per tree. Each family or group is limited to cutting three trees.

Maps to the tree-cutting locations can be picked up at the Eugene BLM office at 2890 Chad Drive from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

'Victorian' tour of historic house to open Dec. 14

This holiday season, Eugene-area residents can attend the "Victorian Christmas Tour" of a historic house built by a relative of Abraham Lincoln.

The Douglas House, built in 1908 by Lincoln's cousin Samuel Douglas, will open Dec. 14 for public viewing from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The tour will feature elegant Christmas decorations, refreshments, a country store and drawings for prizes.

Tickets are $5 at the door, and proceeds will go to the Springfield Museum's permanent exhibit fund.

The house, located at 961 South 32nd St. in Springfield, has a third-floor ballroom and is an example of turn-of-the-century architecture.

Before the house was moved to its present location, it was on a dairy farm owned by Douglas.

LTD service for University basketball fans to begin

Lane Transit District's park-and-ride shuttle bus service for University men's basketball fans will begin with the Dec. 5 Fresno State game.

The service will continue through the remainder of the 1991-92 basketball season.

The bus fare is 75 cents each way for adults and 35 cents for children ages 11 and under.

People can catch the shuttles from South Eugene High School at 19th Avenue and Patterson Street every 15 minutes, beginning 58 minutes before tip-off.

A shuttle will leave the River Road Transit Station every 20 minutes, beginning an hour and 15 minutes before tip-off. The Springfield Transit Station will pick up fans every 25 minutes, beginning an hour and 10 minutes before tip-off.
