

HOLIDAY MARKET DAILY ENTERTAINMENT SCHEDULE

THANKSGIVING WEEKEND

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 29

10:30 LAURA KEMP-Golden clear vocal work that will put you back into your Judy Collins/Joni Mitchell mode of listening and beyond. Wheeler
 11:00 THE McCORNACKS-Delighting children is easy when you have the voices and musical talent of these Eugene performers. Auditorium
 12:00 IAN & MARY-Popular local folksingers take us through the last twenty or so years of thought provoking material. Auditorium
 12:15 ELMIRA HIGH SCHOOL FALCONETTES SHOW CHOIR- Wheeler
 12:30 BOB PARKER-Enigmatic songwriter plies us with synaptic stimulation and tickles the ear parts as we try to assimilate it. Courtyard
 1:15 ANDY MURDZEK & FRIENDS-Andy, the music store man, trots out the ol' C&W standards and Swing era favorites, as some of his favorite companions help him along. Auditorium
 1:30 IAN & MARY-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 MAGICK CIRCLE-Regional all-original rock at an artistic peak - could their visits start a Corvallis rock invasion? Courtyard
 2:30 O'CAROLANS CONSORT-Tunes from old Ireland played on panpipes, hammer dulcimer and folk harp. Auditorium
 2:45 THE TRACEYS-Close family harmonies shines through in this dynamic, full sounding group. Wheeler
 3:45 CHRIS SORENSON JAZZ DESTROYERS-Superb jazz guitarist showcases his talents with several other local music notables. Auditorium
 4:15 O'CAROLANS CONSORT-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 THE TRACEYS-(See 2:45) Auditorium

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 30

10:30 JUST AVERY-Contemporary and traditional folk and blues music; only Avery sings cm' like Avery. Wheeler
 11:00 UNCLE WILL MARTIN-Say "young people" and "music" in Eugene and Will Martin will surely come to mind. Humorous and lively songs you and the kids all know. Auditorium
 12:00 JANET NAYLOR-The area's definitive wire strung Celtic harp player creates a lilting holiday atmosphere. Auditorium
 12:15 EUGENE CHAMBER DUET-Truly classical in every sense, this is a cooperative project of two esteemed local professionals. Wheeler
 12:30 CLOCKWISE-Young players blast their way into the Eugene jazz scene. Courtyard
 1:15 BETHEL TEMPLE SUNSHINE BAND-These youngsters uphold the same great Gospel tradition and spirit as their elders. Auditorium
 1:30 JANET NAYLOR-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 KUDANA-African inspired marimba tunes performed by these dedicated local artists. Courtyard
 2:30 PETER WILDE-Wry songwriter shouts out his Dylan-esque works, admonishing us, most notably, against "capitalistic greed." Auditorium
 2:45 KEN THOMPSON-This able solo vocalist-guitarist makes his debut on the Market Stage. Wheeler
 3:45 DON STANLEY-Don comes in from Leaburg to share piano favorites, though he's best known for his organ background music at a big Springfield pizza works. Auditorium
 4:15 PETER WILDE-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 JERRY GLEASON & FRIENDS-Clear and lilting guitar strokes lightly lead this suave of local jazz trios. Auditorium

SUNDAY DECEMBER 1

10:30 BIG FIDDLIN' SUE, UNCLE T AND JOHNNY-Mountain hoedown, guitar pickin' and fiddlin'. Wheeler
 11:00 CELESTE ROSE-Lively stories and many songs we can all join in singing. Something for us to learn gift-wrapped in each clever oral-tradition presentation. Auditorium
 12:00 SUE PHILLIPS-Solo cello takes us through some classical and some folk material. Auditorium
 12:15 FRENCH IMMERSION SCHOOL-French language music from elementary school immersion students enrich our Holiday listening. Wheeler
 12:30 AMBER TIDE-With powerful vocals and musicianship, this duo leads us on a sunny caravan through swing. Courtyard
 1:15 INFINITUDE-Flute and synthesizer blended artfully by Alice Burke and Ed Kammerer. Auditorium
 1:30 SUE PHILLIPS-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 SHUMBA-Hot African marimba beats to warm the winter dancing spirit, from one of Eugene's premier marimba "families." Courtyard
 2:30 TO GATHER-Matched acoustic guitars and harmonic vocals. Auditorium
 2:45 INFINITUDE-(See 1:15) Wheeler
 3:45 DENYCE WARD-All original new-age material that really speaks to the heart from a talented newcomer to the Market Stages. Auditorium
 4:15 TO GATHER-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 MOONBEAM-Steve Lalor returns with his deep, clear folk singing and guitar playing. Auditorium

December 14 - 15

SATURDAY DECEMBER 14

10:30 KIDS ARE MUSIC-Young talent of the Eugene/Springfield area produce winter showcase. Wheeler
 11:00 CLAIR COINER-Singer and storyteller that holds the attention span of even the youngest with fun and challenging sing-alongs. Auditorium
 12:00 STEPHEN COHEN-Creative music from guitar and special percussion instruments designed and produced by this versatile artist. Auditorium
 12:15 MALABON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL-The music of the Bethel school district is represented by these budding ambassadors of performance. Directed by Karen Williamson. Wheeler
 12:30 KRIZZY EDDY-Some of the tunes are old, some are newer, but the impactful delivery makes each selection this duet's very own. Courtyard
 1:15 SOUTH EUGENE HIGH SCHOOL MADRIGAL SINGERS-Small choral group offers performance that is big on talent and warm with holiday sentiment. Directed by Jim Steinberger. Auditorium
 1:30 STEPHEN COHEN-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 SUGARBEETS-Bluegrass sounding local funsters get your blood flowing and your toes tapping. Courtyard
 2:30 JACK & THE JILLS-Jack Coeelho plays guitar to the accompaniment of Terry Wagner's flute and Shelley Ratzlaff's vocals. Auditorium
 2:45 EDGEWOOD/EVERGREEN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL-Multi-cultural students from Eugene's South Hills, directed by Cina Kraft. Wheeler
 3:45 SACRED HARP-Originally an offshoot troupe of the Eugene Concert Choir, Sacred Harp explores the wisdom and resonance of Early American hymns. Auditorium
 4:15 JACK & THE JILLS-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 DOUG DANIELS-Introduces the synth-guitar which develops a full range of orchestral tones available for his artistic expression. Auditorium

SUNDAY DECEMBER 15

10:30 NOAH MARTIN-Scion of a vocalist/guitarist performing father, Noah stands solidly alone to share his own tastes and abilities. Wheeler
 11:00 ROGER FOUNTAIN-Spectacular juggling and slidesplitting humor for kids of all ages. Auditorium
 12:00 DAVID HELFAND-Folk harp and mando-cello original compositions by one of Eugene's own prolific and much-engaged songmen. Auditorium
 12:15 MORGAN & PHELAN-Both far-travelled and down-to-Earth, these women speak to the best parts in all our deepest hearts. Wheeler
 12:30 SUGARFOOT-An all-woman band with lots of brass and fanfare and a style all its own. Courtyard
 1:15 INSPIRATIONAL SOUNDS-Eugene's claim-to-fame touring Gospel troupe play for their supportive local Holiday Market audience, and we're thankful. Auditorium
 1:30 DAVID HELFAND-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 CRAWDADS OF PURE LOVE-Like something right out of your wildest electric bluegrass Deadhead downhome dream. Courtyard
 2:30 FERNELL & FREDDY-Only two guys? You'll ask yourself, when you hear the full richness of their Latin tour de force. Auditorium
 2:45 FAIRFIELD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL-From the southwest of Eugene comes this elementary school choir, directed again this year by Ann Templeton. Wheeler
 3:45 TIM RYAN-Singin' and playin' the blues with heart is Tim's ever exciting contribution to Eugene's cultural musicscape. Auditorium
 4:15 FERNELL & FREDDY-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 SPENSER BUTTE MIDDLE SCHOOL-A South Hills school sends her young and talented singers to brighten up our afternoon, directed by Sharon Williams. Auditorium

Roger Fountain - Juggler and Mime
December 15

The McCornacks - Songs for Children - November 29

Tim Ryan - Blues Guitarist
December 15

December 21 - 22

SATURDAY DECEMBER 21

10:30 LENTIL BEAN-Perhaps the Swingin'est of the famous Corvallis Beans, Lentil here presides solo onstage. Wheeler
 11:00 BARBARA STEVENS-NEW-COMB-Some storytellers you just have to see and hear to appreciate. This woman is truly captivating to attentive children and their adults, as well. Auditorium
 12:00 BROOK ADAMS-Fast becoming a fixture on the Eugene music scene, Brook can bridge stylistic and language barriers to win any audience. Auditorium
 12:15 BIN DAAS-Indian classical music, adeptly performed on sitar and tabla, by two young local acolytes of this Eastern tradition. Wheeler
 12:30 TSUYOSHI MATSUO BAND-"The ambassador of the blues from Osaka, Japan," Tsuyoshi has done his homework. Courtyard
 1:15 BIN DAAS-(See 12:15) Auditorium
 1:30 BROOK ADAMS-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 MYTHIC SKY-Complex and creative electronic compositions from keyboard synthesizers and both rare and familiar stringed acoustic instruments. New age fans to rockers will all enjoy this show. Courtyard
 2:30 TERRY WAGNER-Creative and modern flute solos soothe and uplift. Soar softly with Terry for a while. Auditorium
 2:45 SHARPS & FLATS-Our honored seniors, based in Springfield, sing favorites of theirs, ours and of the season. Wheeler
 3:45 LENTIL BEAN-(See 10:30) Auditorium
 4:15 TERRY WAGNER-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 TUBA SHOP FOUR QUARTET-You'll be stirred and surprised as you learn to love this "Big Brass" band. Auditorium

SUNDAY DECEMBER 22

10:30 PETER THOMAS-A classical guitarist and guitar teacher, Peter shares the most interesting items about the classical composers, their instrumentation and their works. Wheeler
 11:00 JOHN GILPATRICK-A mime show with some references to the religious origins of some of the holidays that are approaching. Auditorium
 12:00 AS IS-Keyboards, guitar and voices unite to bounce the Market stage. Auditorium
 12:15 BRIAN HAINES-Well-loved already, Brian and his solo piano return to the Holiday Market with some of his now-familiar originals. Wheeler
 12:30 PEOPLES CHOICE-One of Eugene's powerful reggae bands returns to celebrate the music that is so special to their culture and heritage. Courtyard
 1:15 BRIAN HAINES-(See 12:15) Auditorium
 1:30 AS IS-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 OLEM ALVES-Many in the Market have watched Olem develop his strong blues style and lead guitar delivery for quite a number of years, to their great satisfaction. Courtyard
 2:30 LEW JUDD-Lew does for the dulcimer what Grandpa in the Ozarks never dreamed. When "ee-lek-triss-uh-tee" is added, the results are sophisticated and exotic. Auditorium
 2:45 EUGENE PEACE CHOIR-Our social and environmental consciences would surely suffer and dull without the dedication and persistence of these entertaining singers. Wheeler
 3:45 BETHEL TEMPLE CHOIR-Rare "earth" and "soul" mark this most spirited of local church choirs. Always faithful to the cause of sharing their very special music. Auditorium
 4:15 LEW JUDD-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 EUGENE PEACE CHOIR-(See 2:45) Auditorium

December 7 - 8

SATURDAY DECEMBER 7

10:30 CLARE NORELLE-The much-travelled Clare has learned and written songs in a number of languages. Wheeler
 11:00 RICH GLAUBER-Rich, who has recently been on circuit among the district's schools, creates a special Chanuka Event to evoke the Jewish winter holiday tradition. Auditorium
 12:00 BRIAN CUTEAN-Solos sung with the guitar and harmonica from one of our favorite contemporary men of folk music. Auditorium
 12:15 SWEETGRASS-Close to the Earth songs and the soft lilt of women's voices. Wheeler
 12:30 PATRICK DODD-In the name of humanity and social justice, Pat will rush in where many fear to tread. Courtyard
 1:15 SWEETGRASS-(See 12:15) Auditorium
 1:30 BRIAN CUTEAN-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 EAGLE PARK SLIM BAND-Full R&B boogie band backs the "Dean of the Eugene Street Blues" for an exciting electric blues show. Courtyard
 2:30 CHICO SCHWALL & FRIENDS-Eugene's longtime teacher and friend of music brings the music of Ireland to the Market stage, accompanied by daughter Isme Schwall and Doug Daniels. Auditorium
 2:45 JEFFERSON MIDDLE SCHOOL CHOIR-Young teens share their singing and musical enthusiasm for the Holiday atmosphere. Wheeler
 3:45 DAVID G-High energy soloist musically tours familiar and poignant material. Auditorium
 4:15 CHICO SCHWALL & FRIENDS-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 CHURCHILL HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR-Faithful to this recent tradition, this Churchill group makes their third yearly appearance at Holiday Market (their first with new director, Julie Saunders.)

SUNDAY DECEMBER 8

10:30 DEBRA YVONNE-Inspired piano work and delightful vocals make Debra a favorite every year. Wheeler
 11:00 CLARE NORELLE-From rhinoceroses to sandwiches, Clare makes all things come alive to the little people, plus they can learn a little French, Spanish and an African dialect or two, if they want to sing along. Auditorium
 12:00 CELIDH-The best of the British Isles musical tradition from this local quartet. Auditorium
 12:15 NORTH EUGENE HIGH SCHOOL "HIGHTONES" Wheeler
 12:30 JUBAL CHAPLIN BAND-Rock-n-roll, rhythm-n-blues basics pumped and thumped out by young Jubal and his pals. Courtyard
 1:15 HOWARD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL-When these northwest Eugene youngsters take to the stage, holiday cheer is bound to be near. Directed by Alice Vasey. Auditorium
 1:30 CELIDH-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 GOOD CLEAN FUN-Rock of the 60s and 70s. If you close your eyes you'd think you were there. Courtyard
 2:30 AEOLIA-Flute and guitar combine for classical and romantic music. Steve Sarant and Peter Thomas have honed their skills to bring us the best in holiday pleasure. Auditorium
 2:45 TOM LEMMON-Tom belts out his own and others' contemporary folksongs with a vengeance, sometimes like he was Dylan Himself. Wheeler
 3:45 HARMONY-A grand assembly of women singers, polished to a fine holiday musical glow. Auditorium
 4:15 AEOLIA-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 TWIN OAKS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL-Bailey Hill area youngsters share their holiday joy and songs they've learned this fall with us. Directed by Maurya Kaarhus. Auditorium

The Traceys - Family Harmonies
November 29

Kudana Marimba Band
November 30

December 23

MONDAY DECEMBER 23

10:30 GLENN FALKENBURG-Hammer dulcimer, guitar and folk harp are Glenn's most frequently chosen instruments, but this multi-talented musician has a broad range of performing abilities. Wheeler
 11:00 HONEY CHOIR-Honoring Our New Ethnic Youth is the mission of the organization named here, the kids just sing because it's fun! Auditorium
 12:00 KASEY NEWTON-Kasey knows some favorites and he's bringing his guitar and it ought to be a real good time for all. Auditorium

Last Minute Monday!!!

12:15 VIRGINIA COHEN-Vignia puts some very contemporary and lovely sounds into a pastiche of her creation, you'll enjoy moving with her and being moved by her. Wheeler
 12:30 BULLFROG HIGHWAY-Jumpin' blues and soulful sounding originals from two voices and eighteen guitar strings. Courtyard
 1:15 VIRGINIA COHEN-(See 12:15) Auditorium
 1:30 KASEY NEWTON-(See 12:00) Wheeler
 2:00 LIV 'RS & LITTLE ONIONS-Liv Cook and company take to the stage for flute and rock showcase. Courtyard

2:30 KATE & JOAN-New acoustic presentation of the growing body of these songwriters' works, feminine and plenty pithy. Auditorium
 2:45 SALAMANCA-Fiddle and guitar play the jigs, airs and reels that form the background of folk music given to us by the ancients and late masters of the British Isles. Wheeler
 3:45 ROCOCO CONSORT-This soft classical music trio has warmed the Market Stages many times in the past, we welcome them again this year. Auditorium
 4:15 KATE & JOAN-(See 2:30) Wheeler
 5:00 SALAMANCA-(See 2:45) Auditorium