SONG AND DANCE

FRIDAY, JAN. 10

Moze Time will perform from 5-7 p.m. in the EMU Fountain Court as part of the Beer Garden. Free chips and salsa are available from 4-5 p.m., and I.D. is required for admittance.

Jennifer Berezan, a Canadian singer/songwriter, will perform at 8 p.m. in gallery II of the Hilyard Community Center, 2580 Hilyard St. Berezan writes and sings of love and personal struggles, as well as wider political and global concerns. In her concerts, she blends guitar work with elements of contemporary folk, rock, country and blues. Tickets are $9 at the door.

SATURDAY, JAN. 11

The Hunger, a Eugene-Springfield hard rock band, will perform at 9:30 p.m. in the Community Center for the Performing Arts, 291 W. Eighth Ave. The band tours frequently throughout Southwestern Oregon. Also performing will be Arrival. Tickets, available at the door, will sell for $5, and the doors will open at 9.

The Oregon Mozart Players will perform at 8:30 p.m. in the Hull Center's Soreng Theatre. Tickets, ranging in price from $10 to $22, can be purchased at the EMU Main desk or by calling the box office at 687-5000.

The Hilton's Big Chill Beach Party will start at 9 p.m. in the downstairs ballroom. Featured at the party will be the music of Caliente, as well as a room full of sand, net volleyball, beach buckets and tug of war. During the course of the evening, a free trip to the Austrian Alps will be given away. Tickets, available at the door, will sell for $3 and include a free beach ball.

TUESDAY, JAN. 14

The Songwriter's Cafe will take place in the basement of the Community Center for the Performing Arts, 291 W. Eighth Ave. at 7 p.m. The event features an open microphone for musicians, writers and poets. Sign up takes place on a first-come, first-served basis, starting at 6:30 p.m.

READINGS AND FILMS

SATURDAY, JAN. 11

A Lane Literary Reading will take place at 8 p.m. at Mother Kali's Books, 2001 Franklin Blvd. Featured at the reading will be essayist Betsy Brown.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 15

Pacific Paradise, a film, will be shown from 4-6 p.m. in room 115 of Pacific Hall. The film illustrates the varying effects of European and American dominance in Tahiti, Kiribati and Bikini. Also to be shown is American Samoa: Paradise Lost?, a film that explores the changes caused by the United States in traditional life styles of Samoans in American Samoa. The films are free and the public is invited to attend.

Nikki Giovanni, a black poet, will read from her works in the University bookstore from 4-5 p.m. Her reading will coincide with the University's Martin Luther King Birthday Celebration.

VISUAL ARTS

"Kaleidoscopes: Reflections of Science and Art," an exhibit demonstrating the principles of physics and mathematics, will be on display in the Willamette Science and Technology Center, 2300 Centennial Blvd., through Jan. 26.

Paintings, Pastels and Sculptures will be on display in the Alder Gallery, 160 E. Broadway, through Feb. 24. An artist reception will take place on Friday, Jan. 10, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the gallery.

"Fourth Biennial Sculpture Exhibition and Symposium" will take place in the Maude Kerns Art Center, 1910 E. 15th Ave., through Feb. 14. The exhibition will feature the works of 30 prominent sculptors from Oregon and California and will reflect what is going on in the world of sculpture today.

An opening reception will take place on Friday, Jan. 10, from 7-9 p.m. in the gallery. Refreshments and food will be available.

ing portrayal of a sociopathic, remorseless killer. Jonathan Demme takes a magnificent book and does one of the best screen adaptations I've ever seen.

And now for the worst of the year. If you haven't seen these, don't. If you have, you have my pity.

5: Highlander II — The Batman television show had ridiculous things going on all the time. It was overstaged and overacted. But at least it knew that it was camp. This pathetic, science fiction flop hasn't got a clue. Good news: Highlander III is now in pre-production.

4: Nothing But Trouble — The original title for this ego trip of Dan Aykroyd, Chevy Chase and John Candy was Valkenvania. They should have kept it. It's harder to make fun of when writing snide reviews.

3: Problem Child II — He's more offensive than the first time. He's even less funny. The kid still can't act his way out of a paper bag. The female lead from the first movie comes back in the second to play a completely different character, presumably because they couldn't talk anyone else into making one of the worst kid's movies of all time.

2: Hudson Hawk — I want to watch Bruce Willis support his bloated ego about as much as I want to watch boils grow on my skin. Someone spent ungodly amounts of money on this festival of garbage. It would have been better spent on fuel to burn Willis' albums.

1: Cool As Ice — Vanilla Ice should just give up and be a busboy. He's about as cool as refrigerator mold.

So there you have it. There's one thing that a financially disastrous year like 1991 brings: There should be fewer big budget gambles next year. That means we won't have to worry about Hudson Hawk II assaulting us.

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual Students.
We need your help.

We're trying to find out how student services groups at the UO treat lesbians, gays and bisexuals. If you've had either good or bad experiences with the following offices or groups, we want to hear about them; Anonymously, if you wish.

Here's how you can help:

- Call us at 346-2670 and leave a voice mail message.
- Write us at P.O. Box 379, Eugene, OR 97401.
- Fill out an anonymous Comment Form, which you can get from the Lesbian-Gay-Bisexual Alliance Office, Room 319 EMU.
- Or simply write us a note about your experience(s) and drop it in one of our boxes:
Northeast corner of the EMU lobby
Carson Hall area desk
Library main desk
Law School library

We need to hear from you by January 25th.

Again, your comments are entirely anonymous, if you wish. We'll use them to help evaluate how well these offices deal with students like you.
