

"Preventative maintenance is a fine art"

BOSCH AUTHORIZED SERVICE

1917 Franklin Blvd., Eugene
485-8226

RIGHT ON TARGET!

Oregon Daily Emerald
CALL OUR AD DEPT: 346-3712

BUCKS FOR YOUR BOOKS

We'll Pay You 1/2
THE NEW STUDENT PRICE
On Books Needed For Spring Term

At Our Main Store
March 11-20

EMU Location
March 16-20

PRIZES!

$50 GIFT CERTIFICATE!
From Our Store

FREE CANDY!

4

Daily Drawings For Great Prizes

Donated by Nebraska Book Co.

FREE! 20% OFF Coupon

Fast, Computerized Service

13th & Kineaid • 346-4331 • M-Sat

FIRE

Continued from Page 4

quire the building install smoke alarms in the corridors and a sprinkler system throughout the building, Augsburg said.

Because of the changes' expense, Augsburg said he doesn't know when the University will have the funds to bring the building up to current codes.

Augsburger also said Klamath Hall needs a full smoke alarm system in the corridors.

Despite these problem areas, the University has made strides in fire safety, Augsburg said.

"For instance, Mac Court now has a full alarm system, where last spring there was only one (fire alarm) station and that couldn't be heard inside," he said.

On one Monday Augsburg inspected a number of small buildings near the physical plant. Out of five buildings, three had fire code violations.

The worst violator was on 1303 Franklin St., a small building used by the psychology department and the Institute of Neuroscience that had three code violations.

Augsburger found electrical equipment that had had been improperly spliced, the use of unsafe multi-plug adaptors and the use of extension cords as permanent wiring.

Several months from now, Augsburg will check to see if those buildings have made the necessary changes.

But Augsburg's inspections are just part of the University's fire prevention efforts.

The Physical Plant checks all the University's fire extinguishers once a year, Coots said. In addition the Physical Plant will sometimes make buildings safer than current fire codes, she said.

One recent example is the physical plant's upgrading of a fire alarm receiver at OPS. The new receiver will tell public safety exactly where a fire alarm is pulled.

ET ALS

MEETINGS

Incidental Fee Committee will meet tonight at 6 in the EMU Board Room to hear budgets for Campus Information Exchange, MBA Association, Amnesty International, Chinese Student Association, and International Student Association.

Multicultural Curriculum Committee will meet tonight at 7 in EMU Room 20-B.

Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Alliance will have a Pridewoek planning meeting tonight at 5 in EMU Room 319.

ASUO Health Insurance Committee will meet tonight at 5 in EMU Cedar Room D.

MISCELLANEOUS

National Meet-Out preparation including two videos will be tonight at 7 in the EMU Ben Linder Room.

Lesbian Life Drop-in Series will be today from 4 to 6 p.m. in Room 264 of the Counseling Center.

EMU Board of Directors Budget Committee will meet today at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Board Room.

An overview of Brazil history, geography, economy and culture will be discussed by international student Marcos Valle today at 4:30 p.m.

RELIGION

Student Mass will be tonight at 9 at the Newman Center, 1850 Emerald St.

Deadline for submitting Et Als to the Emerald front desk, EMU Suite 300, is noon the day before publication. Et Als run the day of the event unless the event takes place before noon.

Notices of events with a donation or admission charge will not be accepted. Campus events and those scheduled nearest the publication date will be given priority. The Emerald reserves the right to edit notices for grammar and style.

Springbreak 1992

Come see our selections of matching beachwear and Rayban, Oakley and Sun Cloud sunglasses

Validated

Parking

Saturday 9-6:30
VISA
Discover

Sunday 11-5
MasterCard

Mon. thru Thursday 9:30-6:00 • Fri 'til 7 pm

94 West Broadway • Eugene, Oregon • 343-1288

Downtown Eugene

Recycle. It works. (If you work it.)