

WHILE THE OWNERS WERE ABSENT, THE SERVANTS OF THE PEOPLE HAD A WILD OLD PARTY UPSTAIRS.

OPINION

Continued from Page 2

the right feels about social programs. Maybe this faction should think twice about advocating rights that could enlarge the pool of people needing the very services they disavow.

But then wait — isn't the child the responsibility of the woman (or girl) and man (or boy) involved? After all, it was they who did the deed. And even worse: What if they're just using abortion as a form of birth control? Shouldn't the adult(s) be held responsible for their action?

The argument against this states many of us don't act responsibly at times, for a variety of reasons. Is it then right to force these folks to bear a child that may have been a "mistake"? Would it do more harm than good to bring a human into this world when he/she isn't wanted? Many would answer "no" to the first question and "yes" to the second.

But then one must ask how many of us were "mistakes"? I know I was, so my mother says. But she wouldn't trade me for the world.

People will go round and round about this forever — we all know that. There is no absolute answer to the abortion issue.

Cathie Daniels is an Emerald editorial page editor.

Are You Such A Person?

Current UO Bookstore Board Members

from left to right
 Laverne Norman, Class. Staff
 Bill Adams, Grad Student
 Aaron Baker, Grad Student
 Fran Miller, Faculty Admin.
 Shannon Kay, Sr.
 Brian Thompson, Soph.
 Allison Heber, Jr.
 Kevin Govro, Jr.
 BrodyKunz, Sr.
 Scott Dunlap, Sr.
 Stu Thomas, Faculty (not avail.)

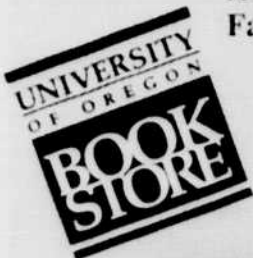

We Need People of Vision Who Want To Make A Positive Difference To Serve On Our Board.

Serving on the Board of Directors of the UO Bookstore is one of the few opportunities students have on campus to make a real difference. The Board of Directors establishes policy for the Bookstore and plans for the future of this non-profit corporation

Available 2-Year Term Positions:

- 2 Sophomore Student
- 1 Teaching Faculty
- 1 Graduate Student
- 1 Classified Staff/Management Service Personnel
- 1 Officer of Administration
- 1 Faculty

Nominations will be taken at the Annual Meeting. Individuals may nominate themselves. For more information, contact General Manager, Jim Williams in person or at 346-4331.

UO BOOKSTORE ANNUAL MEETING
 Tuesday, April 14th at 3:30 in the Walnut Room, EMU
 (Across from the US Post Office)

BAMBOO PAVILION
ORIENTAL BUFFET
 Everyday low prices
 M-Th 10:30-7 • Fri 10:30-6
 Sat 11:30-4:30
 1275 Alder 683-8886

FREE SAFE CONVENIENT

PROJECT SAFERIDE is running for spring term as of Monday, March 30. New spring hours begin at 8:00 p.m. For scheduling, questions, or to volunteer, call 346-4239. We run until 2 a.m. Fri. & Sat. nights.

A China Careers Seminar on
 Tuesday April 7th from 4:00-6:00 p.m.
 in the
 ERB Memorial Union
 Room 20B (Ground Floor)
 sponsored by the Northwest Regional China Council

Speaking on their China experiences and outlining opportunities for people interested in Chinese affairs:

- Yan Jian - Down to Earth Distributors Inc.
- Joe Moyle - Retired U.S. Foreign Service Officer
- Kelly Richardson - Richardson Sports Inc.
- Dave Erlandson - NIKE, Inc.

Don't worry... it's free! For more information on this fantastic event, please contact the friendly Center for Asian and Pacific Studies office -- (503) 346-5087

THE FAR SIDE By GARY LARSON

Dance of the Beekeepers