Hike to Larison Rock packs great scenery

INTO THE OUTDOORS

BY JAYSON JACOBY

Some of the most attractive natural features in Oregon are the high Cascade peaks that run north from California the length of Oregon and into Washington.

Just about everyone who enjoys the outdoors gives these snowy volcanoes a lot of attention, from hiking enthusiasts accustomed to trips 20 miles from any road to motorists who never leave the main highways.

For the majority of us who fall between those two extremes, the short hike to Larison Rock offers a nice view of craggy Diamond Peak, with a drive to the trailhead entirely on paved roads.

Even better, the trail is flat enough for mountain bikes but has several switchbacks to keep it from being boring.

To get to the Larison Rock trailhead, first drive south of Eugene on I-5 to the Highway 58 junction. Take the Central Oregon exit five miles south of Eugene and drive east 35 miles to the town of Oakridge. Soft lavender lupine and brilliant yellow scotch broom line the highway to brighten the trip.

Drive about a mile east of Oakridge and turn right at the

The hike to Larison Rock provides some great scenery of the Willamette Valley.

GO AHEAD. MAKE YOUR DAY.

Now The Far Side is as near as your personal computer.

That's right. Now you can gaze into your screen and savor a daily dose of dementia straight from the mind of Gary Larson.

While you're at it, you can organize, view and print out your

This full-function daily planner, complete with animated reminder icons, makes it easy to keep track of your schedule.

schedule by the day, the week, the month or the whole year.

You can plug in recurring events on a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly basis.

Set audio alarms to keep from forgetting things.

And enjoy visits from a menagerie of animated characters that make random appearances on your screen.

So what do you do, 366 days from now, when you run out of cartoons?

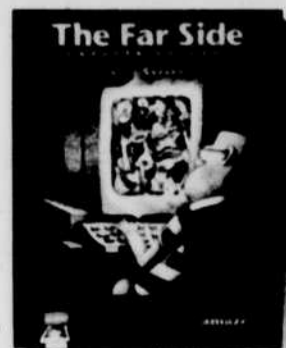

Simple. Just load a refill and get ready to laugh and scratch your way through another year.

The Far Side Computer Calendar is available at your dealer.

Or call 1-800-367-4802 Dept. CO.

If we were you, we wouldn't wait another day. Two days, max.
