Arrest made in actor's murder

PHOENIX (AP) — A friend of "Hogan's Heroes" actor Bob Crane who long had been considered the prime suspect in his slaying 14 years ago was arrested Monday on a murder warrant in California.

New evidence helped lead to the arrest of John Henry Carpenter, 64, Maricopa County Attorney Richard Romley said.

Romley wouldn't detail the evidence, but the murder complaint indicated it centered partly on a determination that human tissue, possibly brain matter, was found in Carpen-ter's rental car.

Carpenter was arrested in a Los Angeles suburb and made a brief court appearance Monday, acknowledging he was the person sought by Arizona authorities. He was held without bail until a July 1 hearing.

His attorney, Gary Fleischman, said his client was eager to speed his return to Arizona to clear his name. He said Romley was basing his case largely on the same evidence available since the June 1978 killing.

"Two previous prosecutors refused to prosecute him, and the road to new evidence has disappeared over many years," Fleischman said.

Crane played the title role in the comedy series that ran on CBS from 1965-1971. His body was found in his Scottsdale apartment with a crushed skull and a cow! wrapped around the neck.

The murder complaint also showed that authorities now identify the murder weapon as a camera tripod, and that one was missing from Crane's room. Investigators previously suspected a tire iron, golf club or fireplace poker.

A rental car driven by Carpenter had smears of blood on the inside of the passenger door. Tests showed it was type B, the same as Crane's, but genetic testing was inconclusive because the sample was too small, authorities said.

Carpenter has type-A blood.

The complaint said Crane was the only person with type-B blood to ride in the car while Carpenter had it.

The murder complaint also said human tissue was found on the car door. Authorities said Monday that the tissue, determined to be either brain matter or fatty tissue, had been found at the outset but was later overlooked.

Carpenter and Crane were known to have argued in a nightclub two days before Crane died. Carpenter was the last person known to have talked with Crane by phone the day he was killed, and Carpenter left Scottsdale that morning.

Romley reopened the investigation when he took office in 1989, setting up a special board to review the case.

CORRECTION

An article in the June 1 Emerald erroneously reported that Campus Recycling and the Student Recycling Program are the same organization. Although it does work in coordination with Campus Recycling, Student Recycling receives student funds. Campus Recycling, headed by Karyn Kaplan and Jon Davis, is funded by the University Physical Plant. Also, the amount of paper recycled per month is 30 tons.
