For $14.95 you could get a copy of The Graduate (This may be pushing it, I realize).

Rand McNally has a series called The Video Traveler Collection which would be helpful for those planning a trip abroad.

U.S. News and World Report has a video called Jobs For the Future: Exclusive Salary Survey, for $9.99. Inc. Magazine created How to Really Start Your Own Business for aspiring entrepreneurs, costing $29.95.

The University Bookstore carries a variety of organizers, which are ideal for the graduate who will be scheduling interviews for the next few months. They range in price from $18 to $75, while leather organizers are costlier at $110. Briefcases and portfolios range in price from about $30 to $110.

You can pick up an answering machine in the electronics
