Geronimo

We are offering $200 to anyone who can help us find our dog, Geronimo. She is a German shepard mix, medium-sized (40 pounds), black with tan legs, face and throat.

She was chained by our driveway, adjacent to Hendricks Park, in the late afternoon of Wednesday, May 27. She was wearing two collars, one with ID tags and license, the other with an anti-bark device. I left her there after I sold a chair to two students. Forty-five minutes later, when I went to bring her in, she was gone.

For four years Geronimo has been our much-loved companion. Losing her at this time is doubly painful for us because we recently had a death in the family. If you think you have seen our dog, please call 343-8175. We will not ask any questions; we just want our dog back.

Toxic Ron

Ron Williams: Regarding your pedestrian but undoubtedly well-intended proposal that "certain people clean their own backyards." I took your advice and must admit my yard does look pretty tidy now. Except, of course, for the one corner cluttered by a stinking, rotting pile of your Emerald letters.

I would like to burn them, but I believe there are regulations limiting the number of toxins one can release into the atmosphere.

Dear Ron Williams: I'm not sure, but I think the editor wrote the editorial. I hope this helps you find the miscreant that dared to, once again, disagree with you.

Tables turned

Are you one of those who believe there is no hate in Measure 20-08? Are you positive that the issue is simply the legality of granting special rights? What if the tables were turned? Imagine seeing this initiative on your ballot:

"The City of X, Oregon shall make no law granting special rights to heterosexuals, rapists, mass-murderers, wife-beaters or child abusers."

If you still can't see the hate in Measure 20-08, you are simply blind.

Please, call and say goodbye.

We hate to see you go, but before you move, give EWEB a call so we can stop your water and electric service in your name.

We'll come and read your meter right away. That way you'll be sure to avoid being responsible for service after you move.

So call EWEB before you leave, it will give us a chance to transfer your service and say goodbye. 484-6016.
