Presley cards to go on sale

WESTPORT, Conn. (AP) — His devoted fans snap up Elvis ashtrays, Elvis beach towels, Elvis on velvet and Elvis postage stamps, so why not Elvis trading cards?

Major League Marketing Inc., which markets and distributes Score and Pinnacle brand sports trading cards, plans to introduce a line of Elvis Presley trading cards in October.

The 660 glossy pictures span the King's "Hound Dog" days as a gyrating teen idol to the twilight of his career as a flashy Las Vegas showman.

Elvis fans are already reaching for their wallets. Company president Dan Shedrick said Wednesday that retail orders are double the company's original projections, although he wouldn't disclose figures.

"If you're an Elvis fan, it's instant. You gotta have them," said Priscilla Parker of Pittsburgh, president of the We Remember Elvis Fan Club.

Work and Play

The EMU CHILD CARE AND DEVELOPMENT CENTERS have positions available for teacher's aides. Teacher's aides need no previous experience; must have a good sense of humor, lots of enthusiasm and a strong sense of commitment. Call the CCDC office at 346-4384 to schedule your work/play time at one of our seven high quality, developmental early childhood programs also serving young children with special needs and English as a second language in our mainstream classrooms.
