GMAC winners drive home their grand prizes

When the three winners of GMAC's "Smart Buyers" Sweepstakes opened their certified mail and read they had won new cars, they didn't know what to think.

"It was after I found out what type of car it was that it hit me," says Scott Johnson, winner of a new Buick Skylark Gran Sport.

Johnson enters other contests with regularity but has never hit the jackpot like he did with his recent prize.

"You always win a movie poster or sweat bands or something like that, but you never win anything of value," Johnson says.

Kerry O'Brien, winner of a 1992 Geo Storm, was happy to be a winner because she lost her car a week earlier in an accident.

"Two weeks earlier a drunken driver had totaled my car," she says.

"I wasn't sure how true it was, but [the announcement letter] came certified mail. It was really, really cool," she adds.

Grand Prize winner, Steve Kaluzny, won a 1992 Oldsmobile Achieva.

GMAC Sweepstakes is an annual contest that awards cars to students throughout the United States.
