

RIGHT ON TARGET

Call our Advertising Department: 346-3712

136 E. 11th • (near Willamette)
342-3358

Must be 21 or Over

Friday Oct. 23rd $5
The Daddies

Saturday Oct. 24th $4
Sowbelly
Rhythm Collision
Bill

Monday Oct. 26th $3
Dashboard Savior
Rakish Paddy

Music Starts at 10pm
Open 4pm-2:30am
Mon-Sat

Scotland's own Dougie MacLean comes to the EMU Oct. 29.

Dougie MacLean's Indigenous Tour '92

Singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, record producer and magical performer, Dougie MacLean is one of Scotland's most talented and popular musical ambassadors, and he is coming to the University's EMU Ballroom on his Indigenous Tour '92.

From his base in Butterstone, Perthshire, he has toured the world and converted audiences with his gentle voice, poetic lyrics and musical virtuosity. His instruments include Scottish fiddle, guitar, bouzouki and Australian didgeridoo.

MacLean has been at the forefront of the Scottish Folk revival since the early '70s. He was a member of such respected bands as The Tannahill Weavers and Silly Lizard, but since 1983 he has performed mainly as a solo artist. He has also established his own label, "Dunkeld Records," and through radio and television he has built a reputation as a superb contemporary songwriter and sensitive interpreter of traditional Scottish music.

MacLean has a dedicated following in countries such as the U.S., Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Denmark, Italy, Austria, Germany and Holland.

He will be joined by Davie Duncan on vocals, percussion and harmonica, Jimmie Anderson on electric guitar and bass, and Chris Smith on vocals, drums and percussion. Together they weave around MacLean's songs a real magic that goes from strong and fiery to shimmering and eloquent.

Local Celtic band Skye will join Dougie MacLean on Oct. 29 in the University's EMU Ballroom at 8 p.m. Doors open at 7:30.

Tickets are available at the EMU Main Desk, Balladeer Music and House of Records and are $8 for University students and $10 for the general public.

Zero

Continued from Page 7

Anton explained, "The stuff coming off of the stage is right there. Whatever else it is, it's very strong. It's like poking someone in the chest; you can't turn your head and leave. You get hit with it. There's this power to it."

Catch Zero this Sunday, Oct. 25, at the WOW Hall on the corner of Eighth Avenue and Lincoln Street. Doors open at 9 p.m. and the show starts at 9:30 p.m.

Records

Continued from Page 7

this release with that in mind, you shouldn't be disappointed.

The promo letter that arrived with this CD highlights the fact
SUPREME LOVE GODS
Supreme Love Gods
Def American Recordings

that the manager of New Order was instrumental in getting a record contract for these four guys. It shows.

Picture a hipper Morrissey (if that's not a possibility - skip the review and buy the record) joined at the left hip with EMF, the right hip with Love And Rockets, and right in between with lots of other folks. Not to be mistaken, these young Californians use guitars and all that, the music just sounds a little too formula. If you like this music, chances are good that you don't need this CD because you probably already have plenty of records that sound enough like this to legitimize spending the twelve bucks on a quality

Real Women

Continued from Page 9

Since then, Lopez has worked with leading Latino directors and playwrights and has written "Food for the Dead," a comedy with a political message about the "machismo" intolerance of homosexuality, and "Real Women." Her original play also enabled her to go on to college.

The Martin Luther King Theater's presentation of the bilingual "Real Women" stars actresses Pam Miller, Angie

Sifuentez, Alexandria Scholes, Eileen Fonseca and Maria Casas. Their characters will convey the human ability to survive an atmosphere of fear and hiding with a keen sense of humor and a strong sense of community. The women joke good-naturedly about serious issues affecting their lives: feminine beauty, food, abusive or elusive males and the constant threat of "La Migra."

Tickets are $7 in advance and $9 at the door and are available at the WOW Hall. For reservations, call 344-4085 or 689-4382.

dinner instead.

Or better yet, save up for awhile and get yourself one of those Vocal Eliminators that you see advertised in the back of magazines, then proceed to methodically strip the vocals off of ten or eleven Euro-style neodisco hits of your choosing. Make up some new words or maybe even raid your favorite emotionally charged passages from one of those old junior high notebooks you still have hanging around somewhere. Once this is accomplished, record yourself and/or a friend singing over the music and you'll have yourself a hit!

This self-titled release from the Supreme Love Gods was made commercially available

Blue Window

Continued from Page 8

Others involved in the production are stage manager John Sturgill, scenic designer Shawn Gerwig, costume designer Elise Hennessy, lighting designer Paul B. Verano, assistant director John Rustan and properties master Margaret Davies.

The 80-minute play begins at 8 p.m. and runs Oct. 28-31 and Nov. 5-7 in the University's Arena Theatre in Villard Hall. Tickets and additional information are available by calling the box office at 346-4191.

on October 13th, plus they'll be on tour "everywhere."

Colonial Inn Restaurant

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
All You Can Eat Champagne Brunch $4.95
Every Sunday 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Banquet Facilities Available

1626 Willamette St.

345-7645

MARVIN STERN

Regional Director of the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

will be speaking on
ANTISEMITISM ON CAMPUS

FRIDAY, OCT 23rd • 1:30-3:30
Century Room D (skylight area EMU)

Sponsored by the Jewish Student Union

WOMEN, WEIGHT and FOOD ISSUES

A non-credit group discussion workshop which will cover various topics about women and their bodies, fitness, nutrition, weight management, and topics chosen according to the group's interests.

STARTS: October 27th
ENDS: November 24th

Meetings held every Tuesday from 3:30 to 4:30pm downstairs in the Student Health Center Medical Library. Space is limited, so please call to preregister at 346-4456.

Sponsored by the Student Health Center Department of Health Education

You're Invited
To check out our selection
▼ Costume Supplies ▼ Masks
▼ Make-Up & Wigs
▼ Halloween Party Supplies
Plus: Sports cards + Magic tricks
Jokes + Juggling + Puzzles
Halloween October 31st

CHAZPRO
Family Fun Shop
633 E. 13th
Eugene 345-0032

Recycle!

CUSTOM PRINTED
T-SHIRTS
LOWEST RATES!
ECHO
SHIRTS
896-0101

CHECK CASHING
at the
UO Bookstore