

Baylor will manage expansion Rockies

DENVER (AP) — Don Baylor, long considered a top candidate to run a team but bypassed twice last year, became the fourth minority manager in the major leagues when he was hired Tuesday by the expansion Colorado Rockies.

Baylor, 42, played for six American League teams in a 19-year career as an outfielder, first baseman and designated hitter, playing in three World Series and seven AL playoffs. He had a .260 career average, 338 homers and 1,276 RBIs. Baylor was introduced during a news conference.

ic and Boise State by one and two strokes respectively. Pacific's Brian Wear won the individual title with a 7-under-par 209, beating Boise State's David Lebeck by six shots.

The Ducks will play in their final tournament of the fall season on Monday and Tuesday when they travel to Los Angeles to compete in the UCLA Invitational. The Ducks will not play after that tournament until the Spring season begins in February.

"We are behind where I thought we would be at this point in the season," Nosler said. "I hope we can finish the fall season with a good tournament this weekend."

The Oregon women's golf team will also be playing in their final tournament of the fall next week when they compete in the Pioneer/Bruin Classic in Temucula, Calif.

The Ducks are coming off a sixth-place finish in the Stanford Intercollegiate earlier last weekend. Oregon shot rounds of 312, 311 and 307 to finish 65 shots behind No. 1 ranked San Jose State.

Junior Cappy Mack led the Ducks with a 227, finishing in 11th place. Mack's opening round score of 74 was the lowest for the Ducks.

Sophomore Leigh Casey and senior Shannon Maier finished with scores of 234 and 235 to place 30th and 35th, respectively. Oregon's Shannon Hare finished in 47th place with a total of 241. Senior Stacy Jo Smith finished in 58th place.
