

U. Photo Contest — Keep 'em Coming!

U. needs lots of color photos of campus events and everyday activities — and we'll pay you for every one published. Plus, we're offering four $1,000 scholarships and runner-up prizes for the best ones submitted in four categories: news, campus life/lifestyles, sports and entertainment. We're looking for photos of the faces and facets of college life on and off campus, from the normal to the outrageous, from the funny to serious. Landscapes (while inspiring) and nudes (always interesting) are not needed. Photos can be of almost anything or anyone — lost freshmen, moving day (on or off campus), orientation, dorm life, all-night cramming, bed heads, campus protests, political or pep rallies, spring break, intercollegiate and intramural sports, concerts, shopping, cooking, studying, working out, latest campus fashions and fads, lying out, eating out, pigging out — you name it. Send us your photo entries on color print or slide film, labeled on the back with your name, school, address, phone number (home and school), and detailed info on who, when, why, what and where the photo was taken. Include names and phone numbers of the people in the picture if possible. Entries are non-refundable. For each photo entry published in U. (as many as 50 an issue), you'll be paid $25, and your name and campus will be credited under the photo, giving you national recognition. The May 1993 issue of U. will feature a special College Year in Review section showcasing student photo entries. Every entry received automatically will be entered in U.'s College Photo contest. Four first-place winners will receive $1,000 scholarships. Second and third place winners also will receive prizes. Send your entries to U. The National College Magazine Photo Contest, 1800 Century Park East, Suite 820, Los Angeles, CA 90067-1503.
