Duck defense soaks Beavers

□ Oregon holds Oregon State to 110 yards in blustery 7-0 Civil War victory

CORVALLIS — Oregon won back the state Saturday.

It wasn't pretty at rain-soaked Parker Stadium, but the Ducks managed to demolish the Oregon State option offense and sneak away with a 7-0 victory in the 96th Civil War game.

"I don't care if we would have won by one point," Oregon head coach Rich Brooks said. "In these conditions, believe me, a win's a win. If you can win in these conditions, you're doing something right."

The win gave Oregon a 6-5 record, 4-4 in the Pacific-10 Conference, and kept alive its chances of being invited to the Independence Bowl.

With the rain falling at a steady rate throughout the game and winds gusting up to 30 miles an hour, the first half struck up memories of 1983's 0-0 tie at Autzen Stadium.

But the Ducks ended any fears of that when quarterback Danny O'Neil hit tight end Willy Tate on a three-yard touchdown pass with 35 sec-

Soon after the half ended with Oregon ahead 7-0, the Oregon State student section cleared out. Many didn't return, apparently sensing what was to come.

What the second half held for those who did decide to battle the weather was a half packed with penalties, mistakes and more bad weather.
