

U. Photo Contest — Keep 'em Coming

U. needs lots of color photos of the faces and facets of everyday college life. We'll pay you $25 for every one published and your name and campus will be credited. Plus, we're offering four $1,000 scholarships and runner-up prizes for the best ones submitted in four categories: news, campus life/lifestyles, sports and entertainment.

Subjects can be of anyone or any activity on or off campus — from the normal to outrageous, from serious to funny... you name it. All photos are

Send your entries on color print or slide film labeled on the back (gently) with your name, school, address, phone number (home and school) and detailed info on who, what, why, what and where the photo was taken. Include names and phone numbers of the people in the picture if possible. Entries cannot be returned and become the property of U. Mail to: U. Magazine Photo Contest, 1800 Century Park East, Suite 820, Los Angeles, CA 90067-1503.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Three U. Readers Win New Cars in 4th Annual GMAC Sweepstakes

Three U. readers won new General Motors cars as grand prize winners in the General Motors Acceptance Corporation's "Smart Buyer" Sweepstakes contest, which ran in U. The National College Magazine last spring.

The winners — Steve Kaluzny, Scott Johnson and Kerry O'Brien — were selected randomly from thousands of entries from college students across the country. During the past four years GMAC has sponsored this special college sweepstakes program in U., each contest has generated an average of more than 71,000 student entries.

This year's Grand Prize winner, Steve Kaluzny, won a 1992 Oldsmobile Achieva S Sport Coupe.

"It was after I found out what type of car it was that it hit me," says Scott Johnson, who won a new Buick Skylark Gran Sport. Johnson enters other contests often but never has hit the jackpot like he did with his GMAC prize.

Kerry O'Brien, winner of a 1992 Geo Storm, was especially happy to be a winner. "Two weeks earlier, another driver totaled my car. I wasn't sure how true it was but [the announcement letter] came certified mail. It was really, really cool," she said.

GMAC Sweepstakes is an annual contest that awards new GM cars to college students throughout the United States.
