

Ducks get bulldogged in Fresno

By Dave Charbonneau
Emerald Sports Editor

The Oregon men's basketball team continued its season-long tradition of playing sporadic basketball, as it blew a nine-point lead in the final four minutes and lost 80-78 at Fresno State.

Oregon led 75-73 with two minutes left in the game when Bulldog guard Andre Austin hit a three pointer to put Fresno State up 76-75. Duck guard Orlando Williams came back with a short jumper to give Oregon a 77-76 lead with 1:20 left in the game.

After a Bulldog basket, guard Antoine Stoudamire was fouled underneath and went to the line to try and regain the lead for Oregon with 25 seconds remaining. He hit one of two shots to tie the score at 78.

The Ducks had two fouls to give, but failed to foul the Bulldogs as they hit an easy shot from the corner with nine seconds remaining. Stoudamire had another chance to even the score, but he drove down the lane and missed a lay-in as time ran out.

Oregon led 74-65 and looked in control of the game before Fresno State went on a 8-0 run, keyed by back-to-back three-pointers by Austin and Davon Statterwhite, to cut the Duck lead to 74-73.

During that stretch, Oregon made three turnovers in the span of one minute.

The Bulldogs jumped out to an 8-3 lead and led 14-5 before the Ducks went on a 14-2 run to take a 19-16 lead midway through the first half. The two teams took turns leading for the remainder of the half, which ended in 36-36 deadlock. Orlando Williams led all Oregon scorers with 18 points, including three three-pointers, and Stoudamire added 17.
