SANTA

Santa, the kids around campus refer to good ol' Mac Court as "The Pit." And it's for good reason, as "The Pit" offers some of the worst lines of sight for viewing basketball in the nation.

It's getting really tough to justify charging spectators Pac-10 prices when they can't even see the scoreboard. What we'd like to do, Santa, is replace Mac

Court with a facility on par with our other facilities such as Autzen Stadium and the Casanova Center. At 65 years of age, Mac Court is fit only to host intramural championships, not Pac-10 basketball.

Santa, you're one of the most famous of all legends. Maybe you could speak with Oregon legends such as Phil Knight or Bill Bowerman and see if they would be willing to exchange several million dollars for their name on an arena.

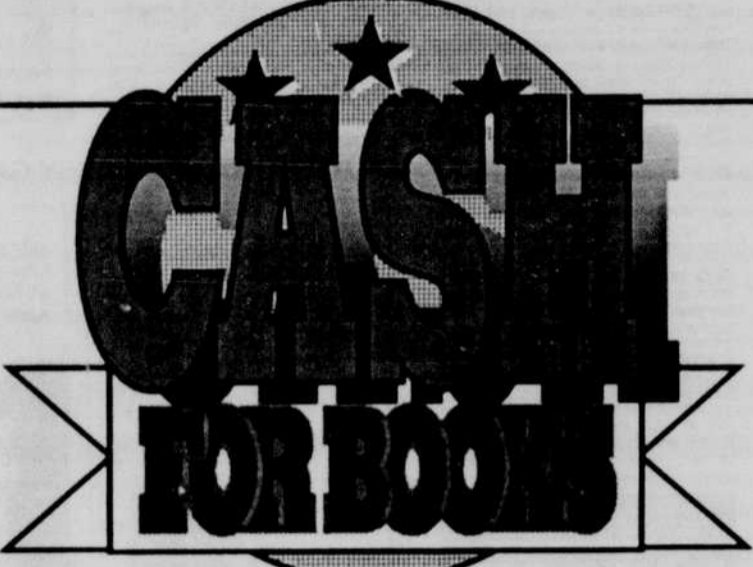

Otherwise, due to the priority given intercollegiate athletics in this state's budget, Mac Court will still be hosting Pac-10 basketball in its 100th year. We realize this is a tough request, Santa, but until we get a new facility, we probably won't be able to attract the recruits who may one day make us conference contenders.

Santa, we know we're asking for a lot this year, but at least we feel our requests are down-to-earth and fairly reasonable. At least we're not groveling in the dirt and asking for the impossible like Oregon State.

The Beavers' athletic department told us it was going to ask for its football team to win two games in one season.

Sincerely,
The University of Oregon Department of Intercollegiate Athletics
