Ducks deface Vandals, 80-61

By Dave Charbonneau
Emerald Sports Editor

The Oregon men's basketball team tightened its defense, showed patience on offense, and bucked a monkey off its back, defeating Idaho 80-61 Saturday night at McArthur Court.

The win was the Ducks' first victory over a Division I team in 14 games. It was also Oregon's third and most promising victory for Jerry Green's 3-4 Ducks.

"Idaho is a good team," Green said. "A 19-point victory over team like them is very good for our team's confidence."

Oregon guard Antoine Stoudamire — who had his best game of the season with 26 points — said he hoped the win proved something about the team.

"Things have been pretty tense lately," he said. "Even after we won Wednesday night (over Division II Alaska-Anchorage), people were still doubting us, so it was important to have a good
