

Green plans EMU rally

In another attempt to boost support for his basketball team, Oregon head coach Jerry Green is planning a rally in the EMU courtyard Thursday.

The 12:30 p.m. rally will take place as a prelude to the Ducks' Pacific-10 Conference home opener against UCLA Thursday night at McArthur Court.

Oregon is currently 0-2 in the Pac-10 and 7-7 overall this season after losing two games over the weekend to California and Stanford.

Tickets will be handed out to those with fee cards for Thursday night's game, and free posters and bumper stickers will be given away.

tackled the guy with a flying leap.

Then, a few football players — suddenly the "morality patrol" on campus — showed up and started telling the mob that they shouldn't be throwing snowballs at people they don't know.

For a while, it looked like a fight would break out, but once they were able to pry the store employee off the poor guy, the crowd slowly broke apart and went home ... or at least to the next corner.

hung on for an 18-13 win as the Ducks rallied to win four of the last five matches. Oregon had never lost to Fullerton State in the five prior meetings between the two teams.

Jeff McCoy raised his record to 13-6 with two victories over the weekend. Heavyweight Chris Anderson also recorded two wins and raised his season record to 12-6.
