Ducks drop third straight 99-87

By Dave Charbonneau
Emerald Sports Editor

Oregon's men's basketball team missed 14 free throws that proved to be the difference in its 99-87 loss to UCLA at McArthur Court Thursday night.

But for a couple of minutes Thursday night, "The Pit" was back.

Midway through the first half, the 7,489 fans at McArthur Court rose to their feet in a thundering roar as the Ducks took a 22-21 lead against the 15th-ranked Bruins.

But then the Ducks — and the Mac Court roof — came back down to earth.

UCLA ditched the Ducks' only lead of the game in a hurry, going on a 14-4 run to take a 35-25 lead. Oregon missed four free throws to end the half trailing 45-36.

"I wish we could have made our free throws," Oregon head coach Jerry Green said. "We could have given ourselves an opportunity to win. Instead, we hurt ourselves at the line."

The Ducks made only seven of 15 free throws in the first half, and only six of 12 in the second half.

The Bruins jumped out to a 51-38 lead in the second half, and Oregon was unable to get any closer than eight points.

UCLA guard Shon Tarver had 23 points, leading a balanced Bruin scoring attack that had all five starters scoring in double figures.

Oregon guard Antoine Stoudamire led the Ducks with 28.

Hockey team opens with road trip

By Erick Studenicka
Emerald Sports Reporter

The Oregon club hockey team, arguably the most successful club sport program on campus, begins its fourth season this weekend with away games against the University of Washington and Gonzaga University.

Comparing the team's average Saturday night game attendance of 1,100 with other University sports attendance averages, the hockey team outdrew every intercollegiate sport except for football and men's basketball.

"The Oregon hockey team really packs the fans in," said Lane County Ice employee Trish Massey. "They easily outdraw the Eugene Blues semi-pro hockey team."

The hockey team has also been financially successful. Through revenues gained from gate receipts and advertising, last year's team was able to cover all expenses with over $1,000 remaining in its budget.

With only six players returning from last year, the team will be pressed to match last season's

The men and women of the Peace Corps. Dedicated Volunteers who put their valuable skills to work, helping people in developing countries live better lives.

It's tough. And it takes more than just concern. It takes motivation. Commitment. And skills in any one of several important areas: education, math and science, health, business, agriculture, the environment, community development, and more.

For 30 years, being a Peace Corps Volunteer has been a chance to stop dreaming about a better world and start doing something about it.
