opening half, including five of seven from three-point range. USC shot only 45 percent in the half, but stayed close by outrebounding the Ducks 22-12.

USC regained the lead three minutes into the second half when Nicky McCrimmon hit a three-pointer to put the Trojans ahead 46-43. USC outscored Oregon 12-4 during the first 3:30 of the second half to pull ahead 49-44.

Oregon was able to stay close to USC throughout most of the half and regained the lead for the last time at 56-55 on a 10-

USC responded with a 14-4 run and had their biggest lead of the game at 69-60 with 5:54 left in the second half. Oregon could get no closer than five points the rest of the game.

Oregon made one final run to cut the lead to 74-69 after a lay-up by Jean Maree Lillard with 1:17 left. After a USC turnover, Oregon had the ball with 48 seconds left, but USC's Lisa Leslie stole a bad pass by Cindy Murphy and the Trojans made four straight free throws down the stretch to clinch the victory.

Sara Wilson led the Ducks with 18 points and four rebounds, followed by Murphy with 11 points and four rebounds. Debbie Sporcich played only 15 minutes in her second game back following an injury but scored 11 points.

The Ducks shot only 44 percent from the field in the second half to finish the game at 48 percent, while USC shot 55 percent in the half and finished at 49 percent. The Trojans dominated Oregon on the boards, outrebounding the Ducks 41-28.

Guard Joni Easterly led the Trojans with 28 points and 10 rebounds.

Oregon returns home against Washington State on Thursday followed by Washington on Saturday.

tired, he just wasn't going after it that hard," said McCoy. "I started going for the pin after I got the big lead, as I knew I wasn't in danger of losing."

McCoy, only a sophomore, has been Oregon's hottest wrestler in recent weeks. He has registered 15 wins on the season, including two against Oregon State's Les Gutches, the No. 9 ranked wrestler in the country.

Traditionally, Oregon has been stronger in the lower weight divisions, but this year it appears the upper weight divisions will be the Ducks strong suit. Heavyweight Anderson commented on the emergence of the Oregon wrestlers in the upper weights.

"It has a lot to do with experience," said Anderson. "If you look, most of the guys in the upper weights have at least one or two year's experience. For a lot of guys in the lower classes, this is their first year."

difficult to comprehend why the factions are fighting. To most Americans, the war seems senseless, an "unholy war" fueled by racial differences. People question how the world can provide relief to people participating in a racially motivated war.

But before one can be critical of the situation in Yugoslavia, one need only to look, ironically, to the 1984 Summer Olympic host city, Los Angeles, to see that we are, at times, no better than the Serbs, Croats and Bosnians when it comes to dealing with racial differences.

While an Olympiad brings recognition and an economic boost to a host city, its citizens often go unappreciated, forced to sacrifice time and money to pull off the event. After dealing with traffic nightmares during the Games, citizens are then often taxed in order to pay for the capital improvements that were necessary to draw the Games to the location.

There is nothing in the Olympic charter that guarantees that a city will become a sort of Shangri-La after hosting the Games. But perhaps it is time for the world stop relying on an impotent United Nations to solve the region's problems and begin to offer some substantive relief to the people of Sarajevo. There would be no better way for the world to finally thank the citizens of Sarajevo for some good memories than to let them survive through the winter.

Once, the world converged on Sarajevo to play games. Now, it is time for the world to converge on Sarajevo again, this time to provide some real relief for its overwhelmed citizens. If we have the resources to place 34,000 troops in Somalia, surely we can find the resources to at least airlift supplies, as we did for West Berlin in the late forties, to the people of Sarajevo.

Yugoslavia will never host another Olympiad. That country no longer exists, the area is now known as Bosnia-Herzegovina. But perhaps with an Olympian-type relief effort from countries who have not forgotten the good times had in Yugoslavia nine years ago, the youth of Sarajevo might one day be able to dream of playing games once again.
