the start of the half." Reece said. "They got a 10-point lead on us, and we were trying to come back the rest of the game."

The Ducks cut the lead to five at 53-48 with 10 minutes left in the game, but Beaver guard Charles McKinney hit one of his four three-pointers in the game to give Oregon State a 56-48 lead.

After Stoudamire hit a short jumper, Beaver forward Mustapha Hoff hit a rare three-pointer, much to the delight of the Oregon State crowd.

Stoudamire said that may have been what killed the Ducks.

"We got close, and then Hoff hit that three-pointer," he said. "I don't remember seeing anywhere on the scouting report that Mustapha Hoff was going to hit a three-pointer."

The Ducks made a couple of turnovers after that and suddenly trailed by 15 with six minutes left in the game.

Oregon made one last comeback in the final five minutes as its scrappy pressure defense caused five Oregon State turnovers in four minutes. Williams, who was relatively quiet for much of the second half, caught fire and scored 11 of the Ducks' final 15 points.

Williams' three-pointer and two free throws cut the Beaver lead to eight with a minute left. Williams then stole an inbound pass, but missed a three-pointer with 36 seconds left. From there, Oregon State sealed the victory at the line.

The Beavers shot 63 percent in the second half and finished the game making a blistering 58 percent of their baskets, including seven of 11 three-pointers.

The Ducks shot only 42 percent in second half and hit only two of 10 three-pointers for the game.

After the game, Oregon coach Jerry Green showed the obvious distress that has been building with each Duck loss.

"I didn't realize how hard this season would be," he said. "It's been real hard on me, and, more importantly, on my players."

Stoudamire led Oregon with 25 points, but scored only nine in the second half, thanks to a Beaver defense that blocked three of his shots in the half.

Haskin finished with 32 points, leading four Beavers who scored in double digits.

Williams and McKinney, — who played against each other in Portland at Benson and Wilson high schools, respectively — both had season-highs. Williams finished with 24, and McKinney had 18.
