

LINGERIE

Other lingerie stores in town are also geared-up for the big day even if they do not offer a live fashion show. Victoria's Secret at Valley River Center has many Valentine's Day promotions. All bras are on sale for $12.99. (Great price boys). It also has teddies, pajama sets and panties in the Valentine's spirit.

In their bath-and-body section, the store has a current special on all bath products — buy one, get one free. Victoria's Secret also has two fragrances — Rapture and Victoria. Rapture offers a free body lotion with the a $35 purchase. Victoria has a gift set that comes with lotion, bath gel and a purse spray.

The Bon Marche has many special features for Valentine shoppers. It offers a special holiday wrapped gown and panty set for $26. There are many assortments of charmuse panties with hearts on them. If you are really lucky, your honey might buy you the teddy set with flaming red Maribu feathers.

Downstairs, the ladies can pick up some silk boxers for their Valentine's as well.

"I found my boyfriend this hot pair of thong backed underwear last year. He won't admit it to his friends, but he loves them," said student Nikole Roeber. The Bon Marche carries thong backed briefs for men as well as women.

Meier and Frank carries many of the same things. Red silk bras, teddies and heart-decorated panties are very popular. They also have Valentine's sleep shirts saying "I belong to daddy" and others with heart designs. They carry heart-decorated cotton boxers for men and women.

He and She adult book store has some different lingerie for Valentine's Day. It carries Valentine condoms for $1.50, and risque heart lingerie for men and women. It even has some little Valentine's Day candy on a stick.

If sexy is what you are shopping for, Sweet Sensations may be the place for you. It specializes in peek-a-boo bras, crotchless panties, and edible underwear.

Lingerie is a gift usually given from men to women. But the real question lies behind who actually enjoys these gifts from the heart. Women are often assumed to feel sexy in lingerie and love having new things to wear. But the men, oh the men, some can't wait to see the lingerie that they sweated bullets over buying in the store actually make it on to their lover's body.

"My problem comes not from buying it, but how to get it off of her. Snaps and hooks have never been friends of mine," said student Todd Moore.

Whether you are shopping for men or for women; lingerie is available for both of you to enjoy on Feb. 14.
