Beavers pin loss on wrestlers in Civil War

By Erick Studenicka
Emerald Sports Reporter

An untimely pin and a costly forfeit combined to spell defeat for the Oregon wrestling team, as the Ducks fell to 13th-ranked Oregon State 24-12 Friday night in McArthur Court.

Oregon was at a disadvantage from the start as Jeff McCoy, the Ducks' 190-pounder, was injured and unable to wrestle. With no other wrestler in the division, Oregon coach Ron Finley was forced to forfeit the match and six team points to Oregon State.

The forfeit was doubly hard to swallow as McCoy had already pinned the Oregon State 190-pounder, Les Gutches, twice this season.

Going into the 177-pound match between Oregon's Scott Buzzard and Oregon State's Chad Renner, the Ducks trailed by only three points. With 45 seconds remaining in the opening period, however, Renner turned Buzzard on his back. Buzzard struggled for more than 20 seconds, but there was no counter for Renner's hold and Buzzard was pinned.

The fall, along with the forfeit in the 190-pound weight class, gave the Beavers 12 team points, enough to ensure the win despite Oregon heavyweight Chris Anderson's victory in the final match of the night.

Cory Sonnen gave the Ducks their first team points of the night when he defeated Stephen Hilas 10-7 in a match better suited for a back-street alley than a wrestling mat.

Hilas looked in control when he lifted Sonnen over his head and threw him to the mat for a near fall, but Sonnen quickly countered and scored a reversal. Sonnen recorded a near fall of Hilas in the third period, which was enough to secure Sonnen's eighth dual-meet win of the year.

Oregon 167-pounder Mat Sprague proved to be a worthy opponent for Trent Flack, who came into the match with a 28-1 record. Sprague looked to score two early points on a take-down, but the referee ruled the wrestlers were out of bounds. Flack would eventually win 4-1, but Sprague had dictated the pace of the match.

Sprague said Friday's effort had been his best ever against Flack.

"I'm gaining confidence against him. Tonight, I felt I dominated while we were on our feet," Sprague said. "I even picked up the tempo in the end."

From Apple

Solutions from your Apple Campus Reseller:
a lot of Macintosh for an affordable price.

The best investments start with inside information.

Built-in video support lets you add up to a 16" Apple display with 256 colors.

It runs over 4,000 Macintosh programs, which all work in the same, consistent, intuitive way.

A screaming 25 MHz 68030 microprocessor helps the Macintosh LC III computer run up to 50% faster than its best-selling predecessor.

Its internal disk drive comes in three big sizes: 40MB, 80MB or 160MB. So you can store lots of papers, letters, notes, ideas.

Add up to seven external hard disk drives, scanners or other devices through the SCSI port.

A built-in SuperDrive™ disk drive reads from and writes to Macintosh- and MS-DOS-formatted disks.

4MB of RAM is standard. For complex graphics or engineering programs, you can even expand your LC up to 36MB.

The new Apple Macintosh LC III.

When you know what we've built into the new Macintosh™ LC III computer, its low price tag looks even better. It's the successor to Apple's top-selling personal computer—the Macintosh LC II. And it has even more speed, power and flexibility. Plus built-in networking, built-in file
