

COMMUNITY UPDATE

Graduate appointed judge

Gov. Barbara Roberts appointed a University School of Law graduate Tuesday to replace retiring Lane County Circuit Court Judge William A. Beckett.

Judge Ann L. Aiken, a Lane County District Court judge since her appointment by former Gov. Neil Goldschmidt in 1988, will replace Beckett when he steps down Feb. 28.

Prior to her District Court appointment, Aiken practiced law privately for five years with Thorp, Dennett, Purdy, Golden and Jewett. She was Chief Clerk of the Oregon Legislature from 1982 to 1983. She was also a law clerk for Judge Edwin E. Allen, for former Governor's Legal Counsel James Brown and for the Lane County Public Defender's Office.

Aiken received her law degree from the School of Law in 1979. She received her undergraduate degree in political science in 1974 and her master's degree from Rutgers University in 1976.

CISCAP sponsoring caravan benefit

The Committee in Solidarity with the Central American People will have a benefit dinner Friday for the "Building the New El Salvador Caravan," which will take material aid to community organizations in El Salvador.

Drivers will take about 35 trucks from the United States to El Salvador. The trucks will remain for the use of various organizations. Catherine Harris and Ross Bondurant of Eugene will be among the drivers.

Donations of health care items, construction and agriculture materials and office and school supplies have been requested by CISCAP. The dinner begins at 6 p.m. at the Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry Street. A $5 to $10 donation is requested. Speakers will include William Hernandez of the FMLN, an opposition party to EL Salvador's government.

For more information, call CISCAP at 485-8633.

Substance abuse program set

The University's Substance Abuse Program is sponsoring a conference on "Drugs and Sex on Campus," this weekend at the Valley River Inn.

The three-day seminar is designed to provide information on substance use and abuse and its connection with sexual behavior on campuses. For more information, call 346-4136 or 346-3397.

them long to get the basic techniques down."

For the past few days, the gospel ensemble has been working with Rickey Grundy, Los Angeles gospel recording artist, to prepare for tonight's 10th anniversary concert. Grundy taught the group several songs he composed, and he will be conducting the group, playing the piano and singing solos.

Grundy offered the group words of inspiration about the sentiment that must be expressed when singing gospel music.

"Gospel is about feeling and emotion," Grundy said. "The melody should take you somewhere. If it doesn't take you somewhere, why waste your time?"

Orders for tapes of the concert with Grundy will be taken at the Hult Center.

The concert is tonight and will feature two performances, at 7 and 9:30 p.m. in the Soreng Theatre at the Hult Center. General admission is $6, and student and senior admission is $4.
