

Softball opens with two losses

The Oregon softball team opened its season with two defeats Friday, before the rain postponed its Saturday games at the Spring Fling in Las Vegas.

The Ducks lost 7-2 in their season opener against Sacramento State Friday morning. The Hornets scored twice in the first inning and four times in the second inning to put the game away early. The Ducks picked up two runs in the third inning, but were unable to catch the Lady Hornets.

Third baseman Leanne Brooks went two for three for the Ducks, and Laura Schmidt drove in Oregon's only runs with a home run in the third inning. The Ducks committed five errors, and pitcher Natasha Dumoski gave up eight hits and got the loss.

Oregon fell behind early again Friday afternoon in its 7-0 loss against host UNLV. The 12th-ranked Rebels took a 1-0 lead in the first inning and added two runs in the third, fourth and seventh innings to pull out the victory.

Pitcher Rachelle Taylor gave up nine hits and walked three batters while picking up her first loss of the year. The Ducks struggled in the field once again and committed three errors. Schmidt and Kathy Stahl led the Ducks with two hits each.

Oregon's game against Oregon State was rained out Saturday, and the Ducks were scheduled to face Cal-Poly Pomona and Utah State Sunday, but results were not available at press time.

Tigard, surpassed her previous career-high of 16 points set earlier this year against Weber State. Healea scored only one point in nine games last season but has become one of the Ducks' top long-range shooters this season.

Center Sara Wilson scored 17 points and grabbed eight rebounds for the Ducks, and Debbie Sporcich scored 17 points and pulled down 12 rebounds. Arizona entered the week leading the Pac-10 in rebounding, but Oregon outrebounded them 42-29 Saturday.

Oregon head coach Elwin Heiny started seniors Jean Maree Lillard and Peggy Swadener in their final home games, and they responded with strong performances. Lillard scored seven points and had three rebounds, and Swadener scored nine points and dished out five assists.

Stacie Tave led the Wildcats with 20 points.
