

The National College Magazine

AN AMERICAN COLLEGIATE NETWORK, INC. PUBLICATION

JOBS AND CAREERS

Joining the Rat Race

On the horizon looms the worst job market in generations, rampant unemployment and spiraling wages. And that college diploma no longer may guarantee a respite from the burger-flipping station. Welcome to the rest of your life. / Page 17

STUDENT LIFE

Raves go mainstream

They've spread from the underground of Los Angeles and New York City to the cow pastures of Iowa. But with these frenzied dance fests bursting onto college campuses nationwide, has the new scene lost the edge? / Page 26

IN ENTERTAINMENT

A fusion of Colour

Living Colour is back with a thunderous album full of driving hard rock riffs and heartfelt vocals. But don't expect to hear it on the radio. As frontman Corey Glover says, they just don't make formats for hard-edged, funkadelic rock 'n' roll. / Page 34

A Higher Education

Are students just saying no?
— Page 12

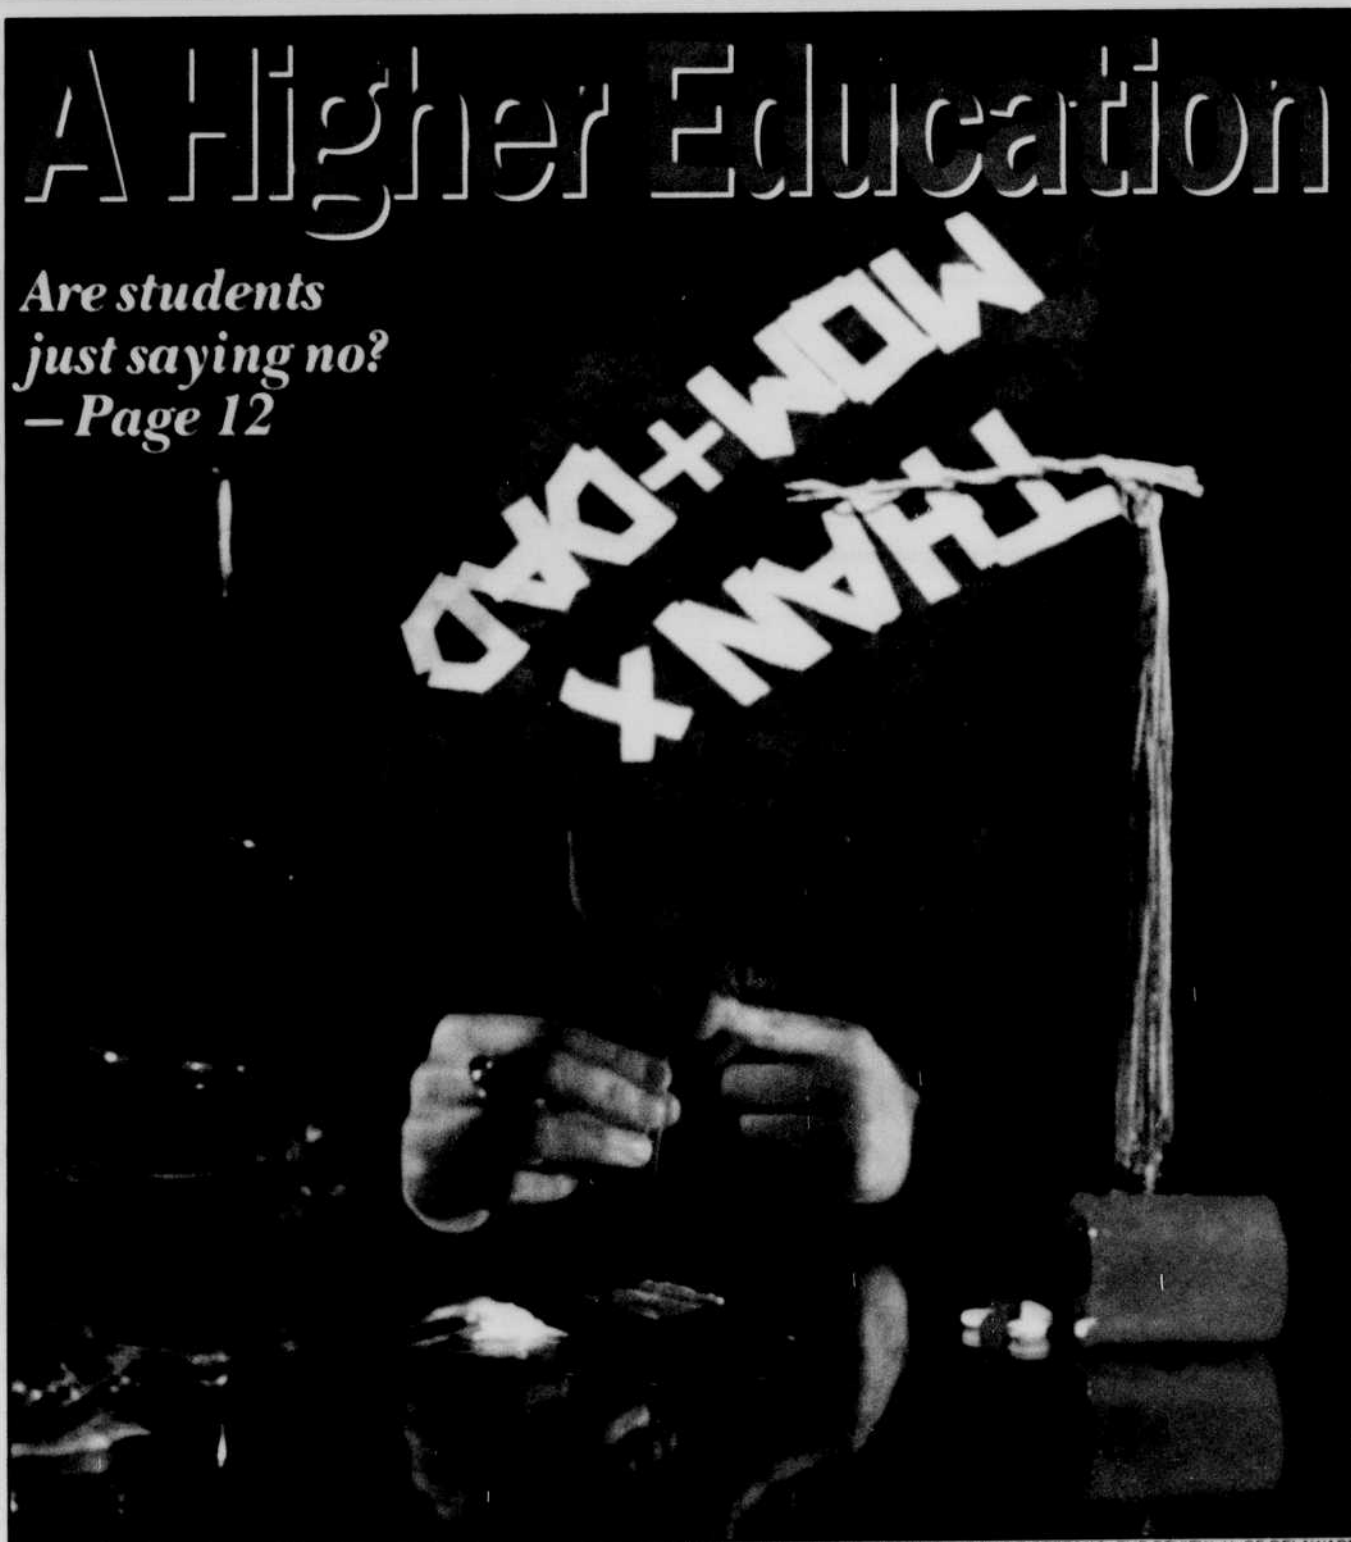

PHOTO ILLUSTRATION BY PAMELA WRAY DE STEFANO, THE REVIEW, U. OF DELAWARE

Minorities struggle for a more inclusive curriculum — Page 25