

Plane Tips

- There are restrictions with any discounted ticket. Be sure you understand the restrictions before you buy your ticket.
- Study your ticket carefully. If anything is unclear, ask for an explanation.
- When overseas, reconfirm your return flight at least three days before departure. The airline may cancel your reservation and resell your seat if you fail to do this.
- With increased airport security, you should check in at least two hours before departure for international flights.

Trains, Buses, etc.

Getting around once you are abroad is one of the great adventures of travel. Depending on where your travels take you, you'll spend lots of time in trains, buses, ships, mini-vans, pick-up trucks, even motorized rickshaws! You will undoubtedly meet lots of people, see the countryside and have some unforgettable rides.

If you're traveling through Europe, the rail system will be your primary transportation mode. The Eurailpasses and other rail options described in the Heather Flynn, Shanan O'Driscoll and Kristin Kennedy made friends on the train in Rome.
