Work, Study, Travel Abroad: The Whole World Handbook

Thinking of going abroad but not sure where to go or what to do? How would you like to study art in Florence, ecology in the Amazon basin or business in Japan? Have you thought about crossing Russia by train or flying over Ayers Rock in a hot-air balloon? What about picking grapes in France or building a school in Ghana? If you want to explore all the options before deciding what's best, this book is for you.

Included in the handbook are:

- Preparation tips for going abroad.
- Information on work opportunities, summer jobs, internships, voluntary service and study programs.
- The cheapest ways to travel, including student discounts, charter flights, air and rail passes, etc.

Now in its 11th edition, this is the classic handbook for those who want to experience another country as an insider.

Compiled by CIEE, published by St. Martin's Press, $12.95.

Volunteer! The Comprehensive Guide to Voluntary Service in the U.S. and Abroad

Want to do something different? Work in an orphanage in Mexico? Help in a crisis shelter in California? Collect data on wildlife in Liberia? Build an irrigation system in India?

Those types of positions and many more are described in the fourth edition of Volunteer!

Whether you have a weekend, a month, six months or a year to give ... whether you want to go to Asia, Africa, Europe, Latin America or stay closer to home ... whether you are a teacher, a doctor or have no special skills beyond your willingness to help others, this book is for you.

Included is a section on the "basics" of volunteering, descriptions of more than 200 organizations with service positions available, and interviews with past volunteers.

Published by CIEE and the Council of Religious Volunteer Agencies, $8.95.

Going Places: The High School Student's Guide to Study, Travel and Adventure Abroad

This book provides all the information needed for a successful trip abroad.

Included are chapters to help teenagers find out if they're ready for travel abroad, make the necessary preparations and get the most out of the experience. From cycling on the Ivory Coast to mosaic-making in Italy, more than 200 programs are described, including:

- Language programs.
- Summer camps.
- Homestays.
- Study tour programs.
- Voluntary service opportunities.

The book includes interviews with students who have been overseas.

Compiled by CIEE, published by St. Martin's Press, $13.95.

Smart Vacations: The Traveler's Guide to Learning Adventures Abroad

This new guide features more than 200 one- to six-week learning vacations, from study tours to cooking schools, bike trips to archaeological digs. Includes practical details and tips on selecting programs.

Compiled by CIEE, published by St. Martin's Press, $14.95.

Where to Stay USA

This book lists more than 1,700 places to spend the night for $35 or less. The 11th edition also provides discounts for readers.

Compiled by CIEE, published by Prentice Hall, $13.95. ☺
