City seeks performers

The Eugene Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services Department is encouraging artists to apply for entertainment bookings for a number of summer special events.

About 50 entertainers are needed for two major outdoor venues: Summer Parks Concerts, which will run from July 7 through August 18 and the Eugene Celebration, which will take place September 17-19.

Audition video or cassette tapes and press kits should be mailed to: Summer Entertainment, Cultural Services Division, One Eugene Centre, Eugene, OR 97401.

Press kits must include group name and contact numbers, biographical information, list of group members and feature articles or reviews. An eight-by-10 black and white glossy photograph is requested.

Materials must be postmarked by Friday, April 9. Booking selections will be completed by the end of July. All applicants will be notified. For more information, contact the Cultural Services Division at 687-5303.

Environmental careers topic of program

Career opportunities in the environmental field will be the subject of an upcoming visit to campus by The Environmental Careers Organization early next week.

ECO members visit colleges and universities in the Pacific Northwest once a year to talk to students and recent graduates and what kinds of jobs are available in the environmental field. In addition, ECO offers advice on how those seeking jobs can make themselves marketable to environmental employers.

Liam Kernell, ECO program coordinator for the Pacific Northwest, will be at the University Monday, April 5 and Tuesday, April 6. Three workshops will be conducted Monday in EMU Cedar Rooms C and D from 11 a.m. to noon; from 1 to 2 p.m.; and from 4 to 5 p.m. Tuesday's workshops will be offered in the EMU Oak Room from noon to 1 p.m. and 2 to 3 p.m. The workshops are free.

AIDS quilt to be displayed in Salem

Willamette University will host a display of 528 individual panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt in the Cone Field House Sparks Center from April 7-10.

Each panel commemorates the life of someone who died of AIDS. The panels are just a portion of the more than 20,000 panels that make up the entire quilt.

Opening ceremonies will be at 7 p.m. April 7, and the display will be open April 8-10 from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. each day.

STREETWISE

QUESTION:

Would you pose nude for $500?

"No. I wouldn't do it for any amount of money."

JAMES COOPER
senior, psychology

"No. That's an awfully low price. If the price was higher I might do it."

SIMONA LAMORTICELLA
sophomore, int. studies

"Hell, yeah, I'd take the money."

BOB HAYES
sophomore, bio-chemistry

"I wouldn't pose nude for one million dollars. It's completely degrading and demeaning towards women."

CRYSTAL DARR
junior, psychology

"No way. It would have to be substantially higher than $500. My dignity is worth more than that."

DAVE LEDBETTER
junior, sociology

"No. I would not do it for any amount. It's just exploiting college students to sell magazines."

ANDREA SAAL
freshman, biology
