

The National College Magazine

EARTH DAY ISSUE

AN AMERICAN COLLEGIATE NETWORK, INC. PUBLICATION

SPORTS

Going to extremes

Radical sports enthusiasts take on challenges where wins aren't measured in points — but in the pump of your adrenaline. Rock climbing, mountain biking, rapelling and sky-diving are providing new twists for thrill-seekers. / Page 13

AT ISSUE

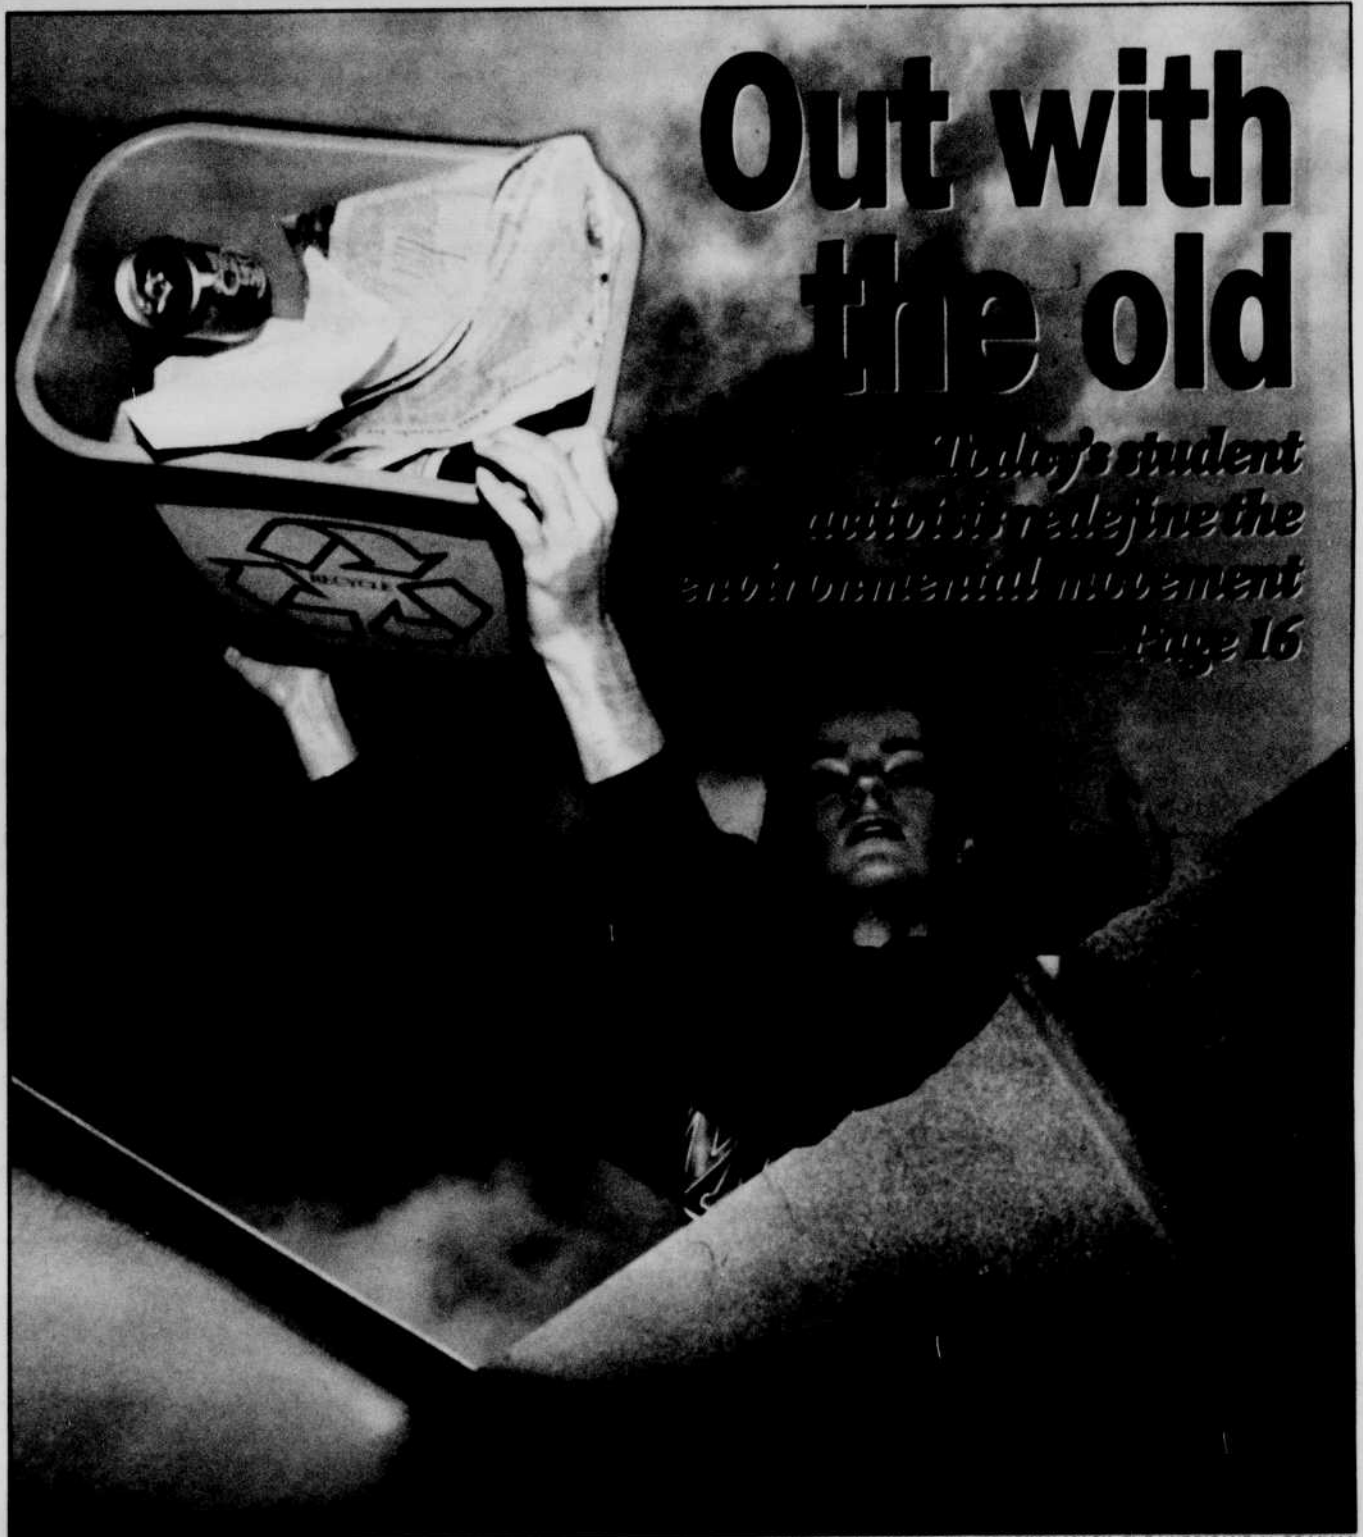

Playboy gets schooled

The ultimate list of party schools gets pulled after Playboy's conscience apparently gets the best of it. Campus officials take credit for putting the pressure on, while Playboy maintains educational sanctity was the driving force behind the decision. / Page 19

IN ENTERTAINMENT

Leary of overexposure

Denis Leary, after exploding on the scene with a new show, album, book and several films, is cautious of wearing out his welcome. But don't worry about this unpolitically correct pop icon because he certainly is not worried about you. / Page 24

Out with the old

Playboy's student activists redefine the environmental movement — Page 16

PHOTO ILLUSTRATION BY PRESTON MACK, THE HURRICANE, U. OF MIAMI

Everyone passes the buck when it comes to book costs — Page 10