

Look for the College in Review Photo Section in U.'s May issue — On campuses April 26

U.'s May issue will include a special four-page section featuring the four Grand Prize winners' photos, plus many of the nearly 2,000 entries in U.'s 1992-93 student Photo Contest.

The four Grand Prize winners will each receive $1,000 from U. for the best photo contest entry submitted in four categories: news, sports, campus life/lifestyles and entertainment.

Baked in — U. of California, Berkeley, students celebrate nudity and freedom of expression. Berkeley's famous (and overexposed) "Baked Guy" is at the microphone.

Ultra Cramming — California State U., Sacramento, student commandeers a private stall to cram for engineering final.

The Photo Contest isn't over — So keep 'em coming!

U. needs lots of killer photos of the faces and facets of everyday college life on and off campus, from the normal to the outrageous, from funny to serious.

U.'s 1993-94 Photo Contest starts May 1 and continues through the summer until April 30, 1994. We'll pay you $25 for each photo published in U. and your name and campus will be credited — Plus, we'll give another four Grand Prize winners $1,000 for the best entries submitted.

Photos can be of almost anything or anyone — graduation, ALL sports activities (team, individual, intercollegiate or intramural), lost freshmen, moving day, orientation, dorm life, all-night cramming, bed heads, campus protests, political and pep rallies, bands, spring break activities, partying, concerts and entertainment, shopping, cooking, working out, pigging out, laying out, latest campus fashions and fads — you name it.

Send your entries on color print or slide film labeled on the back (gently) with your name, school, address, phone number (home and school) and detailed info on who, what, why, when and where the photo was taken. Include names and phone numbers of the people in the picture if possible. Entries cannot be returned and become the property of U. Mail to U. The National College Magazine Photo Contest, 1800 Century Park East, Suite 820, Los Angeles, CA 90067-1503.
