

Softball team loses home opener

By Steve Mims
Oregon Daily Emerald

After waiting through seven rainouts this season, the Oregon softball team finally played its home opener Saturday, and when it was over, the Ducks probably wished they had waited longer.

Washington beat the Ducks 7-4 at Howe Field for its third Pacific-10 Conference win of the season in a game that was postponed by three rain delays and lasted three hours and 14 minutes.

The Huskies (27-23, 3-15) trailed 3-1 entering the fifth inning when they batted around and scored five runs to grab the lead for good. Washington had five hits and capitalized on two Duck errors in the inning.

Washington's Beth Queypo led off the inning and reached base on an error by Oregon third baseman Trina Salcido. Mindy Williams followed with a single before Bridget McKay reached on an error by pitcher Rachelle Taylor that allowed Queypo to score. Williams came around to score on a passed ball by Laura Schmidt.

Following a ground out and a walk, Washington's Megan Wikstrom and Jennifer Cline smacked back-to-back RBI base-hits to give the Huskies a 6-3 lead heading into the bottom of the fifth inning.

Washington stretched its lead to 7-3 in the sixth inning before the Ducks scored in the bottom of the inning. Patty Pyles pinch ran for Heather Holte, who was hit by a pitch, and Pyles scored on a single by freshman Kathy Stahl to cut the lead to 7-4 entering the final inning.

The Ducks loaded the bases with one out in the ninth on singles by Laura Schmidt, Salcido and Leanne Brooks, but they could not get a run across the plate. Kim Kampfer hit a fielder's choice to the pitcher before Holte popped up to end the game.

Washington opened the game with a run in the first inning, but the Ducks came back to tie it on Laura Schmidt's sixth home run of the season, tying a school record. The Ducks pulled ahead 3-1 in the bottom of the third inning when Husky pitcher Stephanie Burns walked Schmidt and Salcido with the bases loaded.

Schmidt led the Ducks on offense, going two for two with two walks and driving in two runs and scoring another.

The second game of the doubleheader was rained out and no make-up date has been announced. The Ducks (15-13, 5-5) have scheduled make-up games against Oregon State Tuesday, followed by a game against Western Oregon Wednesday.

O'Neil puts on show at spring scrimmage

By Dave Charbonneau
Oregon Daily Emerald

Danny O'Neil can rest easy for the next five months. O'Neil, Oregon's starting quarterback, ended a largely unspectacular spring practice session with a brilliant outing in the Ducks' final scrimmage of the spring Saturday at Tigard High School.

O'Neil completed 13 of 20 passes for 315 yards and four touchdowns, leading the Green team to a 42-13 win over the White team.

For the first time since the departure of Bill Musgrave three years ago, it seems as though Oregon will finally have a clear-cut starter at quarterback when practices resume in August.

Redshirt freshman Tony Graziani was given a shot at the starting job when practices began in March, and he completed 18 of 33 passes for 207 yards Saturday.

On a normal day, those stats could keep him in the running for the starting job, but O'Neil's performance left little doubt that Graziani will have to settle for the No. 2 position on
