The Oregon men's golf team shot 385 on Wednesday, its worst round of the tournament, to slip into sixth place at the Pacific-10 Conference championships in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Oregon seniors Jeff Lyons and Cam Martin led the Ducks with rounds of 75 on Wednesday, but it was not enough to move the Ducks up from the fifth place position they were in entering the final round. Oregon was in third place after the first two rounds were completed on Monday.

Lyons' 293 total put him alone in 14th place individually, while Martin finished in 21st place. Arizona freshman Jason Gore won the tournament in a playoff over Arizona State's Todd Dempsey. Both players shot 70 on Wednesday to tie at 284, and Gore won the playoff when he parred the second play-off hole.

Arizona State shot 354 to pass third-round leader Arizona on the final day and won the team title with a 1,444 total, two shots better than the Wildcats. The win was the first conference championship for the Sun Devils since they won back-to-back titles in 1989 and 1990.

Lyons and freshman Chris Bensel led the Ducks during the first two rounds on Monday, and were tied for fourth place at 145. Lyons was tied for the lead after shooting with a 3-under par 69 in the first round, and followed with a 76 in the second round, while Bensel shot rounds of 70 and 75 in the first two rounds, respectively.

Oregon's Ted Snaveley, Cam Martin and Jeremy Forster helped the Ducks with totals of 152, 153 and 154 respectively, on the first day. Each team counted their best five out of six

Former Olympian honored at Hayward

Billy Mills, the only American to ever win an Olympic gold medal in the 10,000 meter run, was announced by USA Track and Field Wednesday as one of five "Olympic Legends" whose image will appear on the tickets to the Mobil/USA track championships to be held at Hayward Field in June.

Barbara Kowski, an official from USA Track and Field, presented Mills with a commemorative ticket during Mills' press conference Wednesday at the Bowerman Building.

Mills was also in Eugene to speak to the Boy Scout organization at a Wednesday night dinner.

Mills spent much of his time fielding questions on the state of the distance running in the United States.

"The next American who will win a gold medal in the 10 kilometer probably will be a female," Mills said. "Our women are in a position to become world class in the 10 kilometer."

"American men are focused on road races and becoming the best in America. The women I talk to are looking past being the best in America and are looking to being the best in the world."

Mills said he thought some of the American milers, like Joe Falcon and Maurice Smith, might
