

FLEECY. CUSHY. What you may ask, does a shirt have BUILT LIKE to do with a yurt for crying out loud. Well, A HIMALAYAN we've had occasion to sleep in a yurt YURT. or two in 25 years of field-testing our products, and believe us, the comparison is not all that far-fetched. 🐼

For one thing, both are incredibly rugged. Both are cozy, warm and relentlessly well-made. 🐼 Some differences: our sweatshirt is made of classic, heavyweight fleece. The cut is generous.

The seams are coverstitched. 🐼 And the piece holds up, if not to the ravages of a Himalayan winter, at least to the punishment of dorm dryers, which can be bad enough, heaven knows. So, next time you're in Tibet, sipping yak butter tea inside a local yurt, take a moment to admire its superb construction. 🐼 It's built like the JanSport 50/50 fleece sweatshirt.
