

POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Office of Public Safety and the Eugene police department April 25 to May 1.

•A Eugene parking control officer reported a case of harassment on the 1200 block of Alder Street April 26. The officer was putting a boot on the tire of a vehicle when two suspects approached her. One of the suspects grabbed the officer's arm and pulled it away from the boot. The boot fell to the ground, and the suspect got in between the officer and the vehicle. As the first suspect prevented the officer from applying the boot, he yelled to the second suspect to get into the vehicle and start it. The officer told police she decided it was not worth it to make any further attempt to boot the vehicle and left the scene. Police have the vehicle's license plate number and are investigating the incident.

•A University student was arrested for possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia on the 1500 block of Hilyard Street April 28. An EPD officer smelled a strong odor of marijuana as he was walking past the student, who was sitting alone on his porch. The officer approached the student and asked if the student had been smoking marijuana. The student said "yes" and showed the officer a hand-rolled marijuana cigarette.

The officer then asked the student if he could search the house for more marijuana. The student told the officer he could search the house, according to police reports. In the house, the officer found an 18- to 20-inch tall marijuana plant, a water bong, grow lamps, fans and two books on how to grow marijuana. When the officer asked the student why he allowed the search, the student said, "I didn't think it was a big thing," according to police reports.

•Police seized a keg of beer and a tap on the 700 block of East 15th Avenue April 28. The officers were responding to a complaint of a loud party at the address. When police officers arrived at the address, two male subjects who were drinking at the party told the officers they were both 19 years old. The officers contacted the residents of the apartment and asked who bought the keg. The residents said they could not remember the name of the person who bought the keg. According to police reports, the residents said they also knew that at least half of the people at the party were under the legal drinking age. Police confiscated the keg and tap and broke up the party.

•The Architecture and Allied Arts Library, Room 200 Lawrence, reported a theft and a case of criminal mischief April 29. A librarian found numerous architectural magazines hidden behind some shelving. The magazines had been cut up with razor blades, and some pictures were missing. The magazines, some of which were more than 70 years old, were valued at a total of $560.

•A member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, 1090 Alder St., reported the theft of a bicycle April 29. Members told police they heard the sound of breaking glass early in the morning. The members went to the front of the building and found a window broken and a bike missing. Police said the suspect broke the window, reached into the building and opened the front door from the inside to get into the fraternity. The bike was valued at $900.

•A University student was arrested and cited for petty larceny at Spiller Hall April 29. An OPS officer who was walking outside of Spiller Hall saw a blue handicapped parking sign in the student's dorm room window. The officer and the dorm's resident assistant contacted the student and discovered eight more stolen street signs in the student's room. The student told the officer he had found some of the signs and stolen some of the others while he was intoxicated, according to police reports.

•A 34-year-old man was arrested and cited for DUI, driving with a suspended license and eluding a police officer on the 1500 block of Hilyard Street April 30. Police officers observed the man stumbling down the street before getting into his car and driving away. After a brief chase, the officers pulled the man over and arrested him.

•A Lane Community College student was cited for minor falsely representing age at Guido's bar, 801 E. 13th Ave., May 1. An EPD officer who was parked across the street observed the subject walk into the bar. The officer said he had cited the suspect in the past and knew the suspect was not of age. The officer went into the bar, found the suspect and cited him. The officer searched the suspect but did not find any false identification on him.
