

Spurs drop Blazers 107-101, take 2-1 lead in series

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — San Antonio Spurs coach John Lucas had declared Game 3 against the Portland Trail Blazers a must-win battle.

Willie Anderson, still recovering from injuries to both legs, answered his call, scoring 13 of his 19 points in the fourth quarter and sparking a 107-101 come-from-behind victory Wednesday night.

"I'm not jumping and dunking and slicing like I used to, but it's just good to be out there playing," said Anderson, who had surgery last year to repair stress fractures to both legs.

The victory gave San Antonio a 2-1 edge over Portland in their best-of-5 Western Conference playoff series. This marks the first time the Trail Blazers have trailed in the first round since they were eliminated by the Los Angeles Lakers 3-0 in 1989.

"This was a big one for us," Lucas said. "They're an awfully good basketball team. I can see why they've been to two finals."

The two teams face each other again for Game 4 Friday night at San Antonio.

David Robinson led the Spurs with 26 points and 14 rebounds and hit a crucial field goal with 49 seconds remaining in the game to push the Spurs' lead to 104-101.

"We're really getting the job done. I think all the things this team has been through this year, all the ups and downs, have really prepared us for this time," Robinson said.

But it was Anderson and his three consecutive baskets — one a 3-pointer — that led San Antonio back from an 87-80 deficit. Sean Elliott also hit a 3-pointer during the run, and Anderson made a key steal with 19 seconds to play.

"The key for us were the back-to-back three-pointers by Willie and Sean," Lucas said. "But we had so many guys play well for us."

Portland did not score at all the final 3:05 of the game.

"We played our tails off," said Trail Blazers coach Rick Adelman. "We still have to win one game and we're back in it."

Adelman said his team didn't execute plays the way it should have and didn't go to the basket enough.

"That's what we should have done to put pressure on them. But you have to give them credit — they hit some big shots," Adelman said.

Clyde Drexler, playing his second game after missing several weeks with a strained left hamstring, led the Trail Blazers with 19 points. That followed his 21-point effort in Saturday's Portland victory, marking his first extensive playing time in a month.

"It's a tough loss and we've just got to get ready for Friday night," Drexler said. "We've got to control the offensive rebounding and do a better job of getting to their shooters."

Rod Strickland and Terry Porter had 16 points apiece for Portland.

Elliott added 19 points for the Spurs, while J.R. Reid had 17.

"Our bench had to step it up tonight," Reid said. "We were not going to let them beat us with any open 3-pointers or easy layups."

The Trail Blazers rallied back to a 53-53 tie at halftime, recovering from a 13-2 Spurs rally that put San Antonio ahead 44-37 midway through the second period for the first time since the first minute of the game.

The Spurs beat the Trail Blazers in Portland 87-86 in Game 1 last Thursday. The Trail Blazers came back and took Game 2 105-96 Saturday in Portland.
