POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Office of Public Safety and the Eugene police department May 11-17.

•A University student reported the theft of a bicycle on the 1700 block of Alder Street May 13. The student told police that she was trying to sell the bike and allowed the suspect to take a "test drive." The suspect left a wallet with the student as collateral, took the bike and never returned. The wallet was stuffed with newspaper and nothing else.

•A 21-year-old Crowd Management Services' employee reported a case of disorderly conduct on the 1800 block of University Street May 13. The employee was directing traffic on the block when a man in a black Chevrolet Camaro displayed a gun. The suspect had been stopped at the intersection as the employee let some school buses pass through the intersection. As the buses passed, the employee said he heard a passenger in the Camaro say, "This is bulls---, we ought to shoot them." The employee turned and saw the driver of the car displaying a small handgun.

•University Housing reported the theft of a $150 couch from the Hamilton Complex, 1365 Agate St., May 13. The couch was taken from the basement of the complex between May 8 and May 10.

•Two University students were cited for noise disturbance and drinking on an unlicensed premise at Spiller Hall, 1364 Columbia St., May 15. An EPD officer was walking by the dorm when he heard the suspects screaming from a third-floor dorm room. According to police reports, the suspects were screaming, "F--- you pigs" and "All cops are a-----."

When the officer contacted the dorm's resident assistant, the RA told the officer the suspects were chronic noise violators and escorted the officer to the third floor. On the third floor, the officer observed one of the suspects walking down the hall with a bottle of beer. The officer followed the suspect into the bathroom, where he found the suspect washing his hands. The bottle of beer was later found outside of the building. The officer took the suspect back to his room, where the other suspect was found. Both of the suspects were intoxicated and abusive, according to police reports. The suspects were cited after one of them admitted to "screaming a little."

•Chez Ray Cafe, 1473 E. 19th Ave., reported a burglary May 16. The suspects broke into the cafe through an unlocked window and stole alcohol, food, a telephone and a wicker basket. The missing items were valued at $210. The suspects also did $50 in damage to food while in the building. According to police reports, the suspects took bites out of a ham, chicken breasts, cheeses, salads and some lasagna before leaving the cafe.

•A University student reported a theft and a forgery at the University Bookstore, 895 E. 13th Ave., May 17. The student told police he left his book bag in a storage bin at the bookstore May 16. Two checks were taken from the bag and were cashed for $150.

•The Knight Library, 1501 Kincaid St., reported the theft of a $700 teak bench May 17. The bench, which was bolted to the cement outside of the library, was taken between May 12 and May 14.

•The University science department, 1210 Franklin Blvd., reported a theft from a Kotex machine May 17. The suspect pried open the machine, located in a women's bathroom in Pacific Hall, and stole 25 cents. The machine's cash box had been recently emptied and only one sanitary napkin had been sold before the break-in.

COMMUNITY UPDATE

Womenspace auction set

The Fifth Annual Womenspace Spring Auction and Dinner, to benefit the Eugene shelter for battered women, will take place Sunday at the Valley River Inn.

The silent auction begins at 4:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 5:30 and an oral auction at 6:30. More than 800 items have been donated by individuals and businesses. Featured items include a Macintosh II computer, mountain bikes, an Ashland theater package and a scenic flight for two over Mount St. Helens.

The event is the main fundraiser for the Womenspace shelter and support services. Cost for the dinner and auction is $25. For more information or to buy tickets, call Kay Van Nortwick at 342-3970 (days) or 343-0762 (evenings).

Birth to Three benefit

Birth to Three, a primary prevention and early intervention parent education and support organization, is planning a benefit drawing, which is its annual fund-raising effort.

Tickets are on sale through June 4, and prizes include two round-trip airline tickets to anywhere in the continental United States, an autographed Portland Trail Blazer basketball and a $250 shopping spree at Albertson's.

Tickets are $1 apiece or six for $5 and are available at all U.S. Bank locations in Eugene and Springfield, Euphoria Chocolates and participating Albertson's Saturday mornings. The drawing will be June 5 at 11 a.m. at the Fifth Street Public Market.

NARAL auction

The Lane County branch of the National Abortion Rights Action League will have its first Lane County Liberty Auction June 5 at 6:30 p.m. at the Downtown Athletic Club.

The event will feature both silent and oral auctions. Items include weekend and vacation getaways to several Oregon Coast locations, artwork by a number of Northwest artists, restaurant meals and concert tickets.

Tickets for the event are $10 and can be purchased at Mother Kali's Books, the Feminist Women's Health Center, Cobblestones, or by calling NARAL at 342-1922.
